5 Brolin won the Swedish Criterium as a three-year-old and was second in the Derby last year. Interesting seasonal debut for the Swedish talent and this task is perfect. Top chance to lead every meter of the race. 3 Wertti was strong in his seasonal debut when he beat Rekilammen Sauli. Even better with that run under his belt. 7 Siirin Valtsu has found top form again and already scored three victories this year. 2 Holter Odin is matched in the Swedish elite.

3 Stjärnblomster is Sweden's best cold-blooded mare who once again takes the trip to Vermo just like last year when she easily beat Suven Sametti over the home stretch. Nice draw and top chance to win. 9 Suven Sametti is good enough to do it tough, but we don't think that she can challenge a fit Stjärnblomster from the back line draw. 8 NP Liitotäthi did not like the distance last time. Good before that scoring three straight wins. 1 Disain is quick starter and will certainly get a nice trip.

10 Falcon Dany Bar has shown great skills so far when avoiding a mistake. Last time at Solvalla, he was really good and, despite quick pace, he was able to win comfortably in the lead. 1 Like Magic Sisu got a nice trip in the three-year-old debut last time. Now with a run under his belt and a perfect draw. Certainly well prepared. 8 Arctic Emerald won easily from the front last time and is Pekka Korpi's choice of two. 7 Arctic Estelle is very gifted and showed nice skills as a two-year-old.

5 Eolo Wise L. has scored a couple of splendid victories in Italy. He is a quick starter, but inexperienced over the long distance. Gocciadoro uses to keep up the pace and might invite the opponents over this long distance. 8 Emir has shown high peaks early in his career, winning five out of 13 starts. Now with a run under his belt after a long break and also gets Magnus Djuse in the sulky. 2 Lars De Veluwe had plenty of energy left over the finish last time. 11 Emma E ran barefoot last time and was splendid.

11 Expo Wise As showed exceptional talent and capacity last year, as a three-year-old, and is certainly among the absolute best four-year-olds in the world. Top chance regardless the journey. 9 Vegas Wania was outstanding in the comeback and should have improved with a run under his belt. 10 Papa Rock developed well last year and finished well from far behind in the first start of the year. In case of quick pace, he will defeat many in the end. 3 Dream Combo should be followed from his nice draw.

9 El Jetpack had not started for a year, but despite the long layoff he showed his high capacity and won outright. High capacity and even if this draw is not optimal, he should be seen with a good chance of passing all of them. 7 Global Deputy showed good sprinting ability last time and if he can save the speed, no one is safe here. 6 Tim Jerry got a quick start and prefers the short distance. 2 Callela Lincoln is capable and has got two runs under his belt.

6 Issakan Valo has always been good, but has developed even more for new trainer Tupamäki. The horse defeated Evartti three starts ago and, without the early mistake in the last run he had had three straight victories. 11 Evartti is the most qualified in the field but has not shown the right top form this year. 12 Morison has got bad number, but uses to show the right attitude. 8 HV Tuuri will certainly reach the front as usual and can then lead the race for a long time.

1 Caio Titus Bond competed in a Group I race in Italy last time where he faced horses like Vivid Wise As, Banderas Bi and Always Ek. This time he starts against Silver horses and if he can only find out, there is a good chance of victory. 4 Amazing Player is a very quick starter and likes to run in the front. Leads the race for a long time. 6 Laxviken's Amiral was a moral winner last time and is a strong type who goes all the way to the finish line. 11 Marlon Boko needs quick pace here.

10 It's Peppertime competed in a circular race over this distance last time and made a strong effort. Lane four is not an advantage but without a mistake this looks like a good task for the strong five-year-old. 4 Impactdarche is making his third start for Andreas Lövdal and is coming more and more. The distance is a plus and he should be counted early. 6 Morris Match won over the distance last time and faces nice conditions in the first circle. 3 Lex Lincoln finished with energy left in the last run.

2 The Big Payback found an early lead in the last run and was then able to disappear to the fourth straight win. Could reach the front again and from there he will certainly be hard to beat here. 3 Speed Matters comes with two straight victories and now gets Magnus A Djuse in the sulkyn - interesting. 10 Need'em wonvery easily in the seasonal debut and should go forward with that run under his belt. 9 Fairy Wind is a winning machine that should be taken very seriously.

5 Hail Mary was not successful during the winter meeting in France and longer distances are probably not an advantage for him. Better distance now and despite the fact that he might have to do it tough, he should be seen with the highest chance of winning. 3 Stoletheshow won this race last year and from the lead he must of course be taken very seriously. 10 Mellby Jinx comes from two good efforts and is in good form. 2 Catullo Jet faces tougher opponents now but should not be overlooked.
