3 Lozano Di Quattro has been matched nicely in this year's starts. The opposition has not been the toughest and that is not the case this time either. He is in a class of his own and could make it to Elitloppet at the end of this month. Perfect task here and top chance again! 6 Sorbet is thirteen years old (!) but still delivers at the highest level which impresses. 5 Hidalgo Heldia likes these conditions and opens really fast. 1 Mr Mah Can got locked in with energy saved last time and gets a nice trip here.

5 Tamacti Jun showed good skills in the debut victory. The four-year-old took the lead early on and then finished fast showing 12/800 meter. 4 Global Evergreen sprinted well as third with energy left last time. The Ready Cash-daughter is getting better and better and fights for victory with the right trip. 11 Hermine Ima raced barefoot for the first time last time, which had a big effect. 10 Inga Konstigheter is driven by the trainer here and will compete barefoot.

9 Luca Vialli Boko is very strong and loves the long distance over which he has taken seven of his ten career victories. Two runs under his belt and the Ulf Stenströmer stable is in great shape. Björn Goop jumps for the first time is hardly a disadvantage either. 6 Rio Alta Wine has been improved and impressed second last. 1 Byron Face owns good strength and can open fast. Galloped on the way to a good result second last. 4 All In Face was good against tough opponents last time.

4 Ready Star finished nicely behind Esteban Bar last time and got defeated by the same horse second last despite a top performance. He is a quick starter, is in top form for the day and clearly faces quite easy opposition. Banker. 2 Nemo Di Quattro can open fast and will compete with an American bike for the second time. Unbeaten over the distance after one attempt. 6 Netzer Boko was mediocre last time, but is normally good for this class. 3 Execute Muscles owns speed that can be enough for a podium place.
