Summary: SISKA (4) has leading claims of getting off the mark on her third start. She finished a solid second over this distance at Deauville in mid-December when last seen on the PSF and can go one place better today. PADDINGTON (2) looks to be the main threat after narrowly winning over 1900m at Deauville on January 16th in a claiming event. I AM STILL STANDING (1) scored in a maiden at Lyon-La-Soie in late January and cannot be ignored, while MUST BE CRACKERS (3) heads the remainder.
