Summary: A two-year-old claiming race to begin the meeting. LES MARQUISES (8), who finished 3rd in a newcomers' race over this distance at Lyon-Parilly last month, and SPANISH ROSE (10), who was 4th over 1000m on her introduction, are likely improvers capable of fighting for victory in this opening event. LA MOSCA (3) recovered from a slow start to finish 4th over track and trip on her debut and needn't improve a great deal to join that fight. YOUNG AND PROUD (1), with Maxime Guyon engaged, has a bit to find on the form of his introduction behind SPANISH ROSE (10) but cannot be underestimated either.

5. MAIA STAR - Overcame a tardy start on debut to run out a wide-margin winner over 2350m at Machecoul on 25 February. Ought to confirm that promise by playing a leading role here

Summary: Well-bred Galileo colt ROADSHOW (4), out of Group II winner and Group I runner-up Acapulco, was impressive when winning on debut on this course over 1500m in October. He ought to have strengthened/improved since and is an exciting prospect on his eagerly anticipated return over this distance, so it could pay to follow his progress. MAIA STAR (5) made a winning introduction at Machecoul over 2350m and is likely to pose a threat in receipt of 1,5kg from that rival. - 6. NASOMO - Won on debut in Germany in 2022 and finished 5th in a two-year-old Group II later that year. Missed his entire 2023 campaign but didn't go unnoticed in two comeback appearances on the PSF - finished 8th over 1800m at Chantilly on 29 February

- 13. EL MANIFICO - Well-performed veteran handicapper with sound references at this level (4 wins and 12 places), including a last-start 6th in a Quinte+ over track and trip on very heavy ground on 7 March

MONDAY, 01/04/24

Summary: NASOMO (6), who finished 5th in a two-year-old Group II, has run two pleasing comeback races at Deauville and Chantilly. For his first handicap, with "Monsieur Quinté+" Stéphane Pasquier engaged, he could represent the value here. MONACO RULES (3), who made a winning reappearance, fits a similar profile. EL MANIFICO (13) and MORSAN (9) have the means to make their presence felt too. The shortlist is completed by MORPHEWAN (4), with Mickaël Barzalona in the irons, and LADY CHAPEL (10).

Summary: CHIVERE (7) finished 3rd on debut over course and distance behind a runaway winner so, with improvement expected given the benefit of that experience, will aim for victory, especially with the aid of her rider Ambre Molins' 1,5kg allowance. Group I Prix de Diane entry BUBBLE GUM (6) would have come on appreciably from the experience of her ParisLongchamp debut (5th) so could pose a threat. So, too, could MONBE (5) who finished 5th on debut behind the selection. ABISOLA (2) showed enough in 2 starts on the PSF to warrant respect/consideration in her first start on the turf.

Summary: Having never finished worse than 3rd in eight outings on this course, defending champion of this Group III event TRIBALIST (4) is good value to redeem himself after an unsuccessful trip to Hong Kong for the Group I Longines Mile. He will, however, have to be wary of Group I winner MARHABA YA SANAFI (2) who made an impressive winning comeback on this course recently.
