RANK

7 Elvis T.B.C. was really good in his comeback last time and is probably even better now with that run under his belt. Should have the best chance to win - especially if he finds the lead. 12 Global Easy Rider finished quickly in the last race, as second behind Four White E.G. Is good for this class and should be considered. 2 R.K.Dynamite is consistent. Has a better starting position than the main rivals and could be the winner. 5 Legacy Of Sound is on the way up and should not be underestimated.

RANK

12 Nordsjö Prinsen finished strongly in the last race after an early gallop. Has done well in all five starts this year and has not missed a podium place on any of them. Our pick. 11 Nordprins has two wins in a row and really found top form without back shoes. In the fight for victory. 10 Höstbo Marcus has three runs under his belt. Barefoot behind now and he has to be considered. 5 Granbarksborren made it to the cold-blood Derby last year - and is now making an exciting seasonal debut.

3 Västerbo Snap won easily in his debut but was clearly improved in the last race when he won easily after a quick final lap. Debut behind the gate now but should handle it. Top chance. 5 Hervey Island has a run under his belt and will be better now than last time and should be the biggest threat to our pick. 12 Xanthis Knopfler has the speed to win this race but has a tough starting position. 11 Moni Debbi has looked nice lately and will now compete barefoot for the first time.

RANK

2 Raphael has a nice starting position and goes for the front - and in that position he is unbeaten after two attempts. Leads the race for a long time. 6 T.Wall's Notorius looked nice in the last race but got locked in. It was his first start since August so his form is probably a lot better now. 5 Fifth Avenue Trot won a mediocre race from the lead in the last race. Tougher opponents this time but shouldn't be discounted. 11 Global Freeway has a tough starting position and needs some racing luck with both the pace and the journey.
