2 Parker is a very good horse for this context but he hasn't won a race in a long time. He prefers to run in front and faces nice conditions now. 7 Underbarosåfin performed weakly from the lead last time but should be on the way up with a race under the belt. Faces quite easy opponents here. 4 Raja Knight has been in good form this winter and has continued to look very impressive lately. Worth a bet. 9 Exklusiva Liss is known for her strength, and after a poor season last year, her form curve is now sharply rising. A warning.

RACE 5, V64-2

Auto 2140

9 Queen Tresher galloped in her seasonal debut but showed last time that she's in good form with a strong finish to second place, which bodes well for this race. Hard to beat. 10 Aspen Broline has shown improvement lately and finished well last time despite a trip from outside the leader. 5 Carelya has a lot of potential and won five races last year, but the form is a question mark now. 3 Indine Keeper is often up in the front but only managed one victory in 17 starts last year. Quick out of the gate and could take an early lead.

Volt 2140

10 Lill Hans has been steadily improving this winter. Finished strongly to victory in the last run and is our pick to win. 9 Sol Storm has a lot of talent and with more stable performances lately, he's also been successful. He can do it tough and should be considered early on. 2 Kullungen usually competes best when she can run at her own pace up front. Won easily two starts ago and is a contender for the lead here. 12 Vessle Moen had a good seasonal debut last time and should be improved with that race under his belt.

RACE 7, V64-4

9 Zätamustangen has made early mistakes twice in a row and his form is a bit difficult to judge. He has scored a couple of good wins and at his best, he can be competitive. 5 Fia Godiva is quick out of the gate and reliable. She has been improved lately and faces favorable conditions for a run in front. 3 Quint has been a pleasant surprise with two straight wins from the lead, and should be respected. 6 Sir Flax has a high win percentage and won easily from the front in his latest victory. Making his debut for a new trainer, he is interesting here.

8 Pydin had a better season last year than he has had in a while, and has continued to do well this year. Comes from a splendid win and he'll be tough to beat with a similar effort. 3 Bäcklös Uriel has had success this winter, including a recent victory in the V75. He's established himself among the best and should be taken seriously. 10 Bellfaks has over three million in earnings and has returned to form after an injury. Looked good in his last race, finishing with plenty left in the tank. 7 Philip Ess is usually a consistent horse and has had two strong performances after a pause. Will be driven by an apprentice here.

RACE 9, V64-6

8 Emelie has scored several nice wins lately. She prefers to run in front and can do it tough. She's our pick here. 6 Ninepoints Lady comes from a nice win in the lead in her seasonal debut. She's an interesting horse and really good for this class. 10 Joanna Sisu won convincingly last summer but then had a string of poor performances. She's making a comeback here for a new trainer. An outsider. 5 Polly Tooma won her first race from the front last time out and is in good form. Nice number and will certainly put in another fine effort here.
