Impressive on her recent return to the Butte Mortemart, MILLARES (7) is clearly a mare of considerable ability and rates a serious contender. Stablemate to the selection, the unbeaten QUART D'ESPOIR (8) also commands plenty of respect and represents a very much in-form yard. MYSOKO STAR (6) made a striking impression on her hurdling debut and has to be considered.

Summary: Respectively third at Auteuil and second at Fontainebleau on their seasonal returns, HEROS D'AINAY (2) and SPEED EMILE (3) hold the advantage of race fitness. Both look set to play leading roles and could well fight out the finish. They should, however, keep a close eye on JAPON (6), who returns to action with the potential to make a big impact. JOHNNY ROQUE (8), who tends to go well fresh, and DAZODREAM (7), back after a lengthy absence, are also worth noting on their reappearances.
