5 Maharasha won straight away in the seasonal debut last time and was really good, and should be even improved by that run under the belt. Will face good competition here, but is tough and strong. Should have a good chance. 7 Excalibur Gene has really been improved for Frode Hamre and has done well in tougher companies. Should be considered despite this tricky lane. 2 Son Of Sizzling is not reliable, but has good speed and is in fine form. 6 Weekend Vibe is moving up in class, but still developing well.

1 Bully Pepper did really well in the last race and is on the way up. Not a very fast starter but could still hold the lead. In the lead he is the likely winner of the race but he should have a good chance regardless of position. 4 Kentucky Field returns after a layoff. The form is of course hard to predict, but the horse is good for this class. 10 Come Queen has shown top form recently. Tengsareid has chosen another horse here. 6 Malone is coming more and more and will probably compete barefoot.
