9 Ad Astra comes from two poor performances but faced good opposition and got tough trips. The mare is not always reliable but really gifted on a good day. 5 Teton Okey Credit has scored two straight wins and is on the way up in his career. If Björn Goop reaches the front he could lead this all the way. 6 Thomasine is up and down but should not be overlooked if she lives up to her capacity. 2 Al's Demonic Doll should not be discounted here.

4 Keep The Faith was simply the best from the outside of the leader in the last race. From a good lane she could find the lead and in that case she has top chance with a similar effort. 3 Lucas Scott will find it difficult to beat Keep The Faith from an outside position, but he is the main challenger anyway here. 9 Futurity has not convinced so far, but is a half-sister to promising Gaining Experience and can do better than shown. 1 Will To Run has a good lane and is driven by Jepson.

10 Horg Blessen has started his career promisingly and already shown great speed. However, the horse is not completely reliable, which we saw two starts back. 6 Re Flex did well on several occasions last year and is good for this class. If the gelding could improve for Robert Bergh, he should be considered early here. 12 Åse Marve has been matched against quite capable horses in Norway and is probably in the mix here too. 7 Kanalj is developing well.

5 Just Gary faces quite tough opponents but he is the favorite for the lead where he prefers to run. Our pick. 6 Victory Poseidon is consistent and looked a bit fiery from behind the leader in the last race. Is in good shape and a quick starter. In the mix. 7 Tenoutofthen has looked nice at the end as first and second from the lead. American bike and barefoot now. 2 Amazing Nag is up and down but has the speed to challenge.

1 Aske Balder scored a good win from the lead in the last race and showed the right attitude despite a long layoff. The six-year-old won an impressive nine races in fourteen starts last year and remains undefeated on Swedish soil. 10 Ask Viktor is strong and tough and showed the right attitude last time. He can do it tough and will give the favorite a match. 4 Gran Eld needed the last race and should be much better with that run under his belt. 11 Arding is very gifted and earned big money last year. Has struggled towards the end but is an early contender if he is at his best now.

7 Northman Maxus has not raced for a while but has good capacity and this task looks nice. Is better drawn than the main rivals and will certainly get an offensive start by Lennartsson. 10 Alunita was interfered to a mistake in the last race but showed good form before that when she won from the first over with energy left. 11 Max Håleryd has a run under his belt now and will compete barefoot here, which is an advantage. 5 Flexible Launcher is a quick starter and is driven by Jepson here. If he is allowed to dictate the pace a bit, he can go the distance.
