1. JALENDRA - Has looked distinctly ordinary for some time now. Chances limited here
2. JAPLOO DE CAMBRI - Tends to go well when not disqualified and is not one to be underrated
3. JAG ELEGANCE - Finished 2nd on debut but has lost his way since. Unlikely to play a role
4. JIM DU POMMEREUX - Done nothing noteworthy for a considerable period and can be ruled out
5. JAGGERS - Consistent, lightly raced, well-bred trotter. Races unshod for the first time
6. JUST BE GOOD - Has struggled for consistency and was disqualified on his return. Unlikely
7. JULIUS BERRY - Unshod behind for the first time and entrusted to Eric Raffin. Shortlisted
8. JUNO DAY - Had the race won at the time of his fault last time out. Can make amends
9. JAPPELOUP CARNOIS - Unlucky not to have finished closer last start. Will have a role to play here
10. JIVAGO DU CHATELET - Sanctioned in each of his 3 starts when unshod. Must reaffirm to feature
11. JARODE PAULOIS - Seldom far off the mark but has been off since October. Watch for now
12. JAZZ JISCE - Barefoot and in the money last 2 starts in claiming races. Has more to do
13. JEANBAT DANOVER - Good 4th behind a dual subsequent winner last time out. Can have a say
14. JOBI SAINT JO - Has shown improvement in recent outings. Can get into the picture again

Summary : It could be worth siding with JULIUS BERRY (7) who was a good winner Le Croisé-Laroche last year and, on the evidence of that victory, discovers a great opportunity to reconnect with success with Eric Raffin engaged and a new shoeing configuration adopted. JUNO DAY (8) has to bounce back from consecutive disqualifications but could get back on track with Yoann Lebourgeois at the helm and is capable of posing a threat. JAGGERS (5), with all shoes removed for the first time, and JAPPELOUP CARNOIS (9), who was unlucky not to have finished closer in his last start, are to be watched closely and could get into the picture too.

Summary : After two successes from as many outings, unbeaten and unshod JUPANQUIE TONIC (4) is the attraction of the race and can complete a hat-trick. JALNA DU BUISSON (10), who has been 2nd in three consecutive starts, finds Eric Raffin and is most likely to join in the fight for victory with all her shoes removed for the first time. JABALLA (11), also unshod for the first time, could make her presence felt too after a last-start success. Wise, I LOVE BARAKA (8) may surprise.

Summary : Models of consistency and confirmed in their shoeing configuration, INTUITION SOYER (10) and INES DE GLADJESS (6) appear solid points of support. In terms of pure quality, ISIS BLEUE (9) has nothing to envy so could give cheek to the principals if in the mood. INDIANA DE LA NOE (2) starts with the confidence of Marc Sassier and could have a say.

- 7. KALAMITY D'ERABLE - Well-related last-start winner trying a new shoeing configuration. Include

Summary : KELLE EAU (6), the only runner for Thierry Duvaldestin at the meeting, has the means to repeat his easy victory at Meslay-du-Maine on his track debut. Entrusted to Eric Raffin for the occasion, the esteemed KARA D'OR (5) could prove her biggest danger. Improving winner KALAMITY D'ERABLE (7) sprinted well to win at Gournay last time out and could get into the picture.
