RANK

3 Röde Orm scored a splendid win in the first start for Adrian Kolgjini, and did not find room in the last race. Looks like an early lead here and then good chance. 7 Azzurro is capable and put in a nice finish in a stayer race second last, but last time he was not as good barefoot. Is good enough to be in the mix. 10 Tug Of War won a good race at Solvalla in March and never got a real chance last time. 4 Nacho Boko has quite good capacity but resumes from a spell.

5 Slave To Love Cal scored a splendid win, and last Saturday he finished well from the lead in the V75. Easier now and the favorite for the front. 1 Global Everytime was very slow all day last time. Barefoot now and normally he should be considered early. 9 Pure Joy followed on well in a Kungapokalen heat last time behind Baron Tilly and goes down in class here. 6 Michel F.Boko makes an exciting debut for a new trainer and there will directly be a lot of changes - watch out.

RANK

10 Nikki Lane gets our pick in a very difficult race for four-year-old mares. She showed good capacity in some tough companies as a three-year-old and the small field favors her. 7 Sweet Day competed in a heat for the Drottningpokalen and finished well showing 10.5/800 meter. Towards the front now which is worth a lot in these races. 5 Carmita Silvio is trainer Fredrik Persson very pleased with. 9 Sopraventa has good speed and will now run without shoes.
