4 Briskeby Pilen finished second behind Aske Balder last time, but then they were in the same circle. With a 20 meter lead this time it could very well be the reverse order here. 8 Aske Balder impresses every time and wins often, although not always by such a large margin. Quite tough conditions here, but has the right attitude and is an early contender. 9 Jerven Junior never got a real chance in the last race but showed good form. 11 Ask Viktor was not at his best in the last race and acted a bit slow. Owns good strength.

4 Falstaff Font has met Killer Rain in the Netherlands and done really well. Very promising horse in the Michel F Rothengatter stable and should have an excellent chance here. 9 Killer Rain may have been beaten by Falstaff Font in the Netherlands, but showed nice pace when he won in his Swedish debut. 10 Speed Change is capable and has two straight wins for Gocciadoro. 8 Incitanus Sotto is a winning machine and he is making his second start for Lövgren here.

2 Just Like Heaven has been the king of his year in Norway, although the stable companion Charron has challenged in a couple of races. Impressed a lot as second behind Epic Kronos in a heat to the European Derby in September last year and the Gundersen family usually have their horses well prepared. 5 Charron has developed a lot as a 4-year-old. Galloped in the seasonal debut last time, but looked nice afterwards. 9 Global Etalon has been really nice in the last two starts. 7 Eolo Jet is strong and tough.

6 Iceland Falls looked nice in the last race a bit behind the leader. Faces very nice conditions here with his mare advantage and with a run under his belt and should be in good form. Carl Johan Jepson has not won with this horse after four attempts, but they have done well together. 10 Bosha Diablo was strong in the last race even though he lost the trot at the end. Early choice. 12 Chimi is poorly drawn, but his latest performance was splendid. Top form. 1 Humanity Pellini is a quick starter.

2 Vivillion impressed last year when she won the Swedish Oaks. Won her heat in easy style and although it is tougher now, she has a good chance of taking the lead. Once in that position she is the horse to beat. 3 S.G. Empress is the main challenger as she has shown high capacity and the right attitude. 4 Matchmadeinheaven is on the way up. Gets a nice trip from behind and barefoot this time makes her interesting. 1 Scarfo Pellini has good speed and can reach the pocket here.
