RACE 4 — V64-1 — Auto 1640

12 Fuego Degato is very capable for this class and comes in really good form. Owns good strength and speed and will pass many horses with the right trip. 5 Stargazer has done well in two starts for new trainer Ulf Stenströmer, who expects even more from the five-year-old. Goop now and should be able to get a trip in front. Challenger. 10 Global Freeway won easily from the lead and left a good impression after a quick finish in the last race. Used to tough company. 7 Kajser likes this distance and has to be considered. Needs some racing luck from here.

RACE 5 — V64-2 — Volt 2140

4 Marius May has galloped a lot in the first turn. His form is otherwise very good and even though all his career wins have come from the front, he could finish to victory here. 6 Denniz Popp is undefeated without a mistake, but unfortunately he is not reliable and has galloped a lot. Early choice without a mistake. 3 Hunter A.F. has put in strong performances and it is only a matter of time before the first win comes. 9 Nutella has faced tough competition and is only getting better with every race.

RACE 6 — V64-3 — Auto 2640

11 Mr Gaagaa has been matched in really tough company during the season and done well without winning. Now he is going down in class and he likes the long distance. Although he may not be in top form , he is our number pick in an open apprentice race. 5 Las Vegas Sisu has scored two solid wins in slightly easier company. His form is fine and in this field he is a contender. 3 Tutankhaton was far from convincing last time. Better conditions now. 4 Bys Yubraj starts week-to-week which has been a clear plus in the past.

RACE 7 — V64-4 — Volt 2140

12 Fama Victory sprinted to an easy win last time and seemed to have energy left. Faces good opposition but in terms of form and speed the five-year-old is the horse to beat. 7 Noche Snapper had not convinced before the last race but was improved then and finished really well behind Denniz Popp. Prefers a defensive trip? 2 Gigi L' amoroso was not at his best in the last race but has clearly shown the ability to challenge for victory. 4 Notorious Jog has shown good potential but the form is hard to predict after a layoff.

1 Look At Me Sisu finished brilliantly in a lunch race two starts back and did alright in the last V85 last race. Nice conditions here and the form is really good. If he holds the lead he will have a good chance. 8 Great Time Trot doesn't win very often nowadays, but the seven-year-old has been matched in tough company for a long time and is stepping down considerably in class. 10 Pingis is much better than he has shown lately. This driven is an advantage. 2 Laprisamata is not bad at all and seems to be on the way up.

RACE 9 — V64-6 — Auto 2140 — RANK

5 Fleetfoot S.S. started promisingly for Robert Bergh, but in the last race she galloped straight from the start as the clear favorite. The form is clearly better than the latest results show and she is racing barefoot, which is interesting. 11 Popup Pellini has high expectations from the stable and considering her ability she has earned too little money. Will pass many opponents here. 2 Remina had a real peak in August and showed her high capacity. Well prepared after a short break. 1 Sainz Zon is a quick starter and likes to run in the lead.
