Good chance. 6 Long Night Out qualified well just like his stable companion , but is not chosen by Wäjersten. 5 Joy To Mellie galloped in the qualifier but still finished in 1.19.9/2140 meter. 2 Nearco qualified early as a 2-year-old. Possible.

7 German Kaiser galloped in the first two starts of his career before he scored his maiden last time. Really nice trotter who is on the way up. Faces some good opponents here and has a tricky starting position to overcome, but he should be considered early. 6 Endearing won nicely in the last race and if he builds on that effort he has a nice chance of winning. 1 Zäta Tornado is coming more and more. 4 Delivery Success has a run under his belt after a layoff.

4 Tupelo Honey is the one who stands out with two wins in four starts. Not at her best last time, but can do better than that and will be driven by Daniel Wäjersten this time. 3 First Cookie Dream faces older competitors, but is under development. 6 Yay has not won a race yet but has been in tougher companies than this one.

8 Önnes Eldner was really nice in the last race. Two gallops before that is worrying and this lane is not optimal. Has shown the highest capacity so far. 6 Guli Black is not reliable but when avoiding a mistake he shows good capacity. 9 Monster Mitchi doesn't win very often but has put in good efforts most of the time. Contender but needs some racing luck. 5 Kikkan Ålj galloped as a favorite in the last race but did well as third. Needs to set a new record but is developing.

5 Ove Schermer has impressed a lot for the former trainer, but considering the low prize money in the Netherlands and Germany, the horse has not earned a lot of money. Meets easy opponents in his debut for Oscar Berglund and should have top chance. 3 OP's Sam is the main challenger. He is also a really good horse for this class, but has not yet shown the high peaks of our pick yet. 1 At Full Speed is on the way up. 4 Knock Out Simoni will compete with an American bike.

3 Full Speed Forward will run barefoot, if the track allows. Good chance to take the lead and once in that position the mare should have an excellent chance. 2 Unforgettable A.Y. has been in the toughest competition imaginable. Does well but could get a trip on the outside of the main rival which will not be easy. Early choice behind the favorite. 7 Lake's Diana is tough and strong. 5 Dry Martini Grue is in good shape and has a nice chance this time.
