8 Kinge Svarten could not follow after a quick finish last time. Three straight wins before that. Better distance now. Our pick. 4 Guli Fantom was very strong when he defeated Stumne Fyr at the end of January. Has high capacity, but is not reliable. Galloped after a lap last time. Early contender. 5 Fakserling won after a strong wide final lap at Bjerke. Uses to finish fast. Can win. 7 Crussi Dull gave up from an outside position last time. Gets a defensive trip this time. Has to be considered.

2 A Fair Day is rehearsing for the Elitloppet. Was good last time even if he got defeated the last bit. Probably did not like the track. Got a perfect draw here and has top chance to lead this from start to finish. 4 Dundee As has made a start for trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro (formerly Jean-Michel Bazire). Certainly better now. If the favorite fails. 1 Global Dubhe looked nice in the first start of the year, a bit behind an outstanding winner. Gets an inside trip to finish fast at the end. 3 Bedazzled Sox belonged to the best of his year last season. Could cause an upset in this comeback.

3 Delicious Gar sprinted really well in the seasonal debut behind Decision Maker. Better draw this time and our winner. Could lead this from start to finish. 8 Decision Maker has scored many wins in this class over the winter/spring and has been splendid. Still looks in good shape, but poor draw now. Still an early challenger. 2 Mahala sprinted well in the comeback on Swedish soil. Will reach a nice position right away. Outsider. 4 Aurelia Express is consistent and good all the time. Possible if the top duo would fail.

2 Jerka Sting has a nice task again here. Likes to run in the lead (six out of seven there) and is the favorite to reach his desired position again. Our pick! 1 Larry Wood looked very nice in the comeback last time and had energy left. Could go for the position behind leader and take advantage of the open stretch. Early challenger. 4 Xanthis Hilton did well outside the leader at Romme. Hoping for a better trip now. Contender. 6 Robthebank did well in the seasonal debut behind Lozano Di Quattro. Now with Örjan Kihlström!
