RACE 1

ALWAYS GAMBLE RESPONSIBLY AT BETMGM "HANDS AND HEELS" APPRENTICE HANDICAP (6) 4yo+ (Rated 0-65) £6,000 7f1y (1410 Metres)

Going: Standard

Lingfield's left-handed all-weather track is laid out inside the turf track and, measuring just less than a mile and a quarter round, is essentially sharp in nature. This, along with how the races often pan out ensures that stamina is rarely at a premium and strong-travelling types with a turn of foot are often favoured. Predominantly flat, there is a slight downhill turn in to the straight. At shorter trips, prominent racers tend to outperform those ridden more patiently, though there seems little advantage over further. Lingfield's surface is polytrack.

Draw: N/A Pace Information: Weak

Jim Boyle

Alfie Redman

Recorded a fifth win here (fourth over C&D) on Saturday, suited by a switch to more prominent tactics given how the race unfolded back down in trip. Looks vulnerable under a penalty, though.

Tony Carroll

Myla Coppins

Rolled back the years when winning a handicap at Wolverhampton (8 runners, 14/1) under this rider 20 days ago, his best effort since early-2024. First-time blinkers go on but not an obvious type to follow up.

3 2 DAKOTA POWER (19) (D) 91

TIMEFORM VIEW:

FOLK PAGEANT showed plenty of ability when second to a now useful sort at Ayr on debut last summer and should take the beating. Al Maslool offered something to work on when fifth over C&D recently and may emerge best of the others with Andrew Balding's newcomers Floating Market and Thunder Goddess both stoutly bred.

41545-824 4 9-1 | 57.6kg

BEAUMADIER looked better than when making all in a good time at Wolverhampton last week and a reproduction of that form should be good enough to defy a penalty. Hello Luna confirmed she's back in form at Chelmsford and rates the main threat.

Well-suited by the return to front-running tactics when successful over C&D last month and still in good heart when runner-up in a better race at Chelmsford 12 days ago. Looks to have plenty his in favour.

2 1 THE THAMES BOATMAN (12) (CD) h 97
04252-146 6 9-8 | 60.8kg

FIDELIUS can resume winning ways back down in grade, with Lequinto feared most if bouncing back to the form he showed over C&D in January. The Thames Boatman is more than capable in this company but continues to hinder his chances at the start.
