4 Krigar Drottning scored two good second spots behind Cash In and Thunder Mack last year. Nice task in this seasonal debut and she should have top chance. 1 Cava Queen is up and down but put in a nice effort behind Snowfoot over these conditions in January. Possible challenger. 6 Our Princess was third and did alright in the last race behind Ica Chance. Should not be overlooked if improved. 7 La Paloma uses to meet tough horses but prefers to race on turf too. Should not be discounted anyway.

C:

7 King Cole comes from a convincing win and should be considered early again. Faces tougher weight here but is our pick anyway. 2 Ocean Side failed in the last race. Can do a lot better and won two starts back over this 2350 dt. Normally a contender. 4 Double East did alright behind King Cole in the seasonal debut and should be improved. Better weight conditions now and possible challenger. 3 Dapple will be ridden without blinkers now and this longer distance should be an advantage. Outsider.

C:

2 Lady Of Jazz was with seven easy lengths in the last race. Faces tougher conditions now but is ridden by an apprentice. On the way up. 4 Midnight Oil did alright in the last race but did not like the distance. This 2100 dt is an advantage and the horse will be ridden by Elione Chaves again. Early choice. 9 Swinging Of Venice was a non-starter in the last race and the form is a question mark. These conditions are alright. Normally an early choice here. 12 Sea Moonster ended last year with a convincing victory. Should not be overlooked here if well prepared before this seasonal debut.

C:

7 Madi Banja won four races last year and this 1200 dt suits him well. Is ridden by Elione Chaves in this seasonal debut and our winner here. 3 Ousden House faces better weight now and has earlier won over these conditions on Bro Park. Main challenger. 8 Bandola did well in the last race and should be even better now. Possible here despite this poor number. 5 Augustus Caesar did not win last year but put in a couple of nice efforts over these conditions. Outsider.
