4 Sister Sledge won comfortably in her seasonal debut from the lead last time. She is certainly improved by that race under her belt - she has a good number. 5 Racing Brodda comes from a nice fifth spot against tough opponents (Very Kronos won). She will in the mix again this time. 6 Henry Flyer Sisu makes his first start since November. He was consistent and good last year, but only won one race - a contender for a place right away. 3 Ajlexes Cubano is a 13-year-old in excellent form. The conditions here with this distance and this number suit him well.

11 Tarpon Springs secured his first career victory last time out. Long distance then as well, and we believe he can follow up with another win. 7 Mr Ben Bishop returned last time after a long break and had a decent race. He is fast enough to be in the mix here. 6 Gobernante is consistent and good but has yet to win. He will soon score a victory - perhaps now with the right journey. 9 Global Dame beat easier opponents two races ago. She could get a nice trip here wit this number.

1 Speed Matters won four out of his six starts as a four-year-old last season. He has a nice task ahead of him. 4 Timo Jutila can be up and down, but when he avoids a mistake he has good speed for this class. He should be considered early in that case. 2 Nils Zonett made his first start in a long time last time out and should be improved by that race under his belt. Early contender. 7 Alberto Ray got locked in with energy left in his seasonal debut last time out - one of several outsiders in this open race.
