3 Godfather has started the year with strong performances at Vincennes in tough competition. Comeback now and will compete with shoes. Our pick anyway. 7 Nugget Zon is making his seasonal debut, but is making his first start as a gelding, is an incredibly quick starter and often performs well after a layoff. 1 Amazing Hazel did not convince last time. Is up and down, but owns good basic capacity and with the right trip the horse will fight for victory from an optimal starting position. 8 Frankie Godiva has shown good form.

Erwin Bot's horses have won well on Swedish soil this year, which is why we expect a strong performance. 4 Sparkling Wine has looked brilliant scoring two straight wins from the front. Debut behind the gate but looks fast. 6 Run Rhapsody Run has shown really good capacity and strength for this low class. 3 Indiana Summer never had a real chance from a bad starting position in the last race.

4 Moonshine Mearas has looked nice in both starts this year. With two runs under his belt, he should be close to top form should and here he should have a good chance to reach the front. Barefoot for the first time. 3 Illyrian put in several strong performances as a 3-year-old without winning in ten starts. Fast starter and should benefit from the short distance. 1 Diva Face has improved for the new trainer and shows good form. 8 Nunchita finished well on a difficult track in the last race. Nice conditions.

14 Coquaholy needs no introduction and is normally too good for a race like this. The seven-year-old has competed in tough company and is stepping down significantly in class here. Top chance to pass all opponents. 2 Stormy Wareco showed fine form straight away in the last race. With only two horses in the first circle, she has a good chance of reaching the front. Leads this for a long time. 6 Victor Flax has a tricky number but is good enough to be in the mix here. 3 Spring Wow finished well in the comeback.

4 Mark Schermer did not convince last time. Scored a couple of impressive wins before that and is really good for this class. He impressed when he visited Jägersro in 2024. 9 Go Kenneth Go is making his comeback after a long training period. The five-year-old should be well prepared and competes barefoot. 3 Lakethesnake is a fast starter and is well prepared. Has not won yet after a layoff though. 8 Light The Lamp is very gifted but did not convince without shoes in the last race at Örebro.

Early contender here too, despite this number over the short distance. 1 Nepenthe Boko is a quick starter and with six of his seven career wins from the front, the horse will go for the lead here. 3 Gomari is much better than the results show.
