8 Selfie Brodde has two straight wins under the saddle and is still undefeated this year. Faces quite good horses here but is our pick anyway. 3 Joe Frazier Boko finished strongly to a second spot in the debut under the saddle on April 16. Has shown good form after that too. Should be considered. 2 The Big Bang has four wins in six starts this year. Somewhat tougher opponents this time but he is an early contender again. 10 Wisdom Teacher galloped directly in the last run but had put in a couple of strong performances before that. Will go around many opponents here.

4 Mister Invictus is undefeated after two starts and won with energy left in the last race. If he handles this tricky number four he should have a good chance again. 3 White Walker has two wins in a row too after two attempts. Nice number and could reach the front again just like in the last race. Early contender. 5 Roubine is a nice Ready Cash-mare who won very easily in the debut. Early choice again if she handles this number. 6 X.Tour scored a good win in the debut on April but has not convinced after that. One out of many outsiders.

11 Titan Yoda has scored two good wins for the new trainer. Should reach a nice position directly with this number. Good chance again. 1 King Kong is on the way up and was better than ever in the last race. Interesting number. Could lead this for a long while. 9 Baby Boy is consistent and good but does not win very often. With the right trip from the back he could be in the mix. 7 Christer Palema finished strongly in the last race and will soon score the first win of the year.
