OLYMPE DE GOUGE (6) has been performing well without winning and looks the likely main threat to the probable favourite. - 12. JENNAH DU PRELAT - Newcomer by Madjani, the dam was a winner. Market signals should be informative

Summary : A course winner on his most recent outing MEJLAD (5) looks like the safe option after a 2L win on April 11th over 1900m. NIMIR (8) was a winner at Dax on debut and will improve plenty from that, he is a major player. JARA'AH ATHBAH (7) has been competing in Group races prior to a decent third-placed effort on her latest outing at Tarbes last month. She can not be ruled out. Summary : A good second in a Class 2 race when last seen ROYAL SAXO (2) will be a likely short-priced favourite, and is the logical selection. SNOWFINCH (4) is improving with racing and will need to improve more from a recent win to beat the main selection. BLUE BAYOU (3) will need more than she showed when she won at this track on May 22nd in a claimer but she can be involved at the business end. RUN AHEAD (5) is talented and can make the frame.

ZOUFRINETTE (3) will try to make life difficult for the likely favourite and should be on the premises on her racecourse debut. MONTHELIE (2) did well when third in a chase on the last run, she should once again give a good account of herself. JEANNE DES ONGRAIS (5) is one to include in all the place permutations.
