7 Nightrain Boko impressed two starts back. He will now make his debut under the saddle, but Rick Ebbinge is a skilled trainer and Jonathan Carre needs no introduction. 9 Cesaron is speedy under the saddle. Early contender in case of quick pace. 13 Bugatti Veyron is a good horse in this discipline. He can do it tough and is ridden by gifted jockey Viktoria Berntsson. 1 Happy Selfie should not be overlooked from the front position.

RANK

4 DiMaggio Face has shown good capacity for this class. Probably reaches the front and if he stays calm and could dictate the pace a bit he will be difficult to catch. 2 Alberdi Wine is in good form. The four-year-old is versatile and the main challenger to our favorite. 9 Ebba did well in the last V75 race. In case of quick pace she will beat many opponents at last. 8 Bearra is fast from the start, but needs some luck from this number.

2 Forest Wood looks promising. The three-year-old is developing well and should normally have a good chance of winning. 4 Lumbermans Malte is not reliable but without a mistake and with the right journey, he should not be overlooked. 9 Wheeljack P.W.R. was brave on the outside in the last race and is an early contender here. 13 Cayenne Gel raced barefoot for the first time in the last race and looked nice.

RANK

9 Oceanna Boko set a new record in the last race. She faces the best conditions in the race and with just a few horses in the first circle, she could find the lead. From there and with a similar effort as in the last race she is our winner. 5 Global Fizz is Lövgren pleased with. Could get a tough journey, but she owns good strength. 3 Olympia Schermer made a strong comeback after a long absence last time and should be even better now. 6 Las Vega is not reliable but has good speed.

RANK

11 Forget It Not was fifth in a Klass III-final in February. Is tough but this number is always tricky over the short distance. 1 Silver Kornell has a good chance to hold the lead and uses to fight well from that position. 4 Staro Qrazy Janey benefits from barefoot and an American bike and is ridden by in-form Victor Rosleff. 5 Winsalot was good in the lead last winter but also performs well from behind.

RANK

6 Lucky Lane has a run under his belt and could find the lead. The main challengers make their comeback and start from the second line. Good chance to lead this from start to finish. 9 Eminent Kronos has good capacity and is normally an early challenger here. 10 Mega Occagnes is consistent and should be considered directly in this seasonal debut. 12 Lakethesnake will also be interesting to follow this season.
