10 Global Action put in a strong effort last time after a break and was only beaten by Jo Black who is in great shape. Lövgren has started the year well and now with a run under his belt and also barefoot, the horse should have a good chance to finish to victory despite the short distance. 4 Gloster Gladiator has been matched in tough company for a long time without having a real chance to win. Stepping down in class this time and can open fast. Likes to compete without shoes and has won six out of nine races barefoot. 1 Draupner is a barefoot horse that has been waiting for this month. Has been matched in the V75 and even if the form is a question mark, he is good for this company. 7 Ekas Zalming is perhaps the horse with best form in the field. Very fast behind the gate and our favorite for the lead.

2 Luna Di Quattro has been in top form and has put in some great efforts lately. She still has not won after 18 attempts but really deserves a victory. Now she meets quite easy horses and this draw is perfect. 9 Canola is only three years old, but the mare showed nice resources as a two-year-old and was locked in with a lot saved in a bigger two-year-old race in December. The talent has now been improved by the winter training and is an early contender in this easy company. 5 Jiri Kucera has not convinced so far and has had a difficult start during his career. He is still without a win after five attempts but here he has an excellent chance to score his first victory as he faces quite mediocre horses. 11 Just Enough DK has shown nice speed resources but collapsed in this year's two starts.

1 Arn Silvio is a great talent who does not know yet what it feels like to lose without a mistake. He is not reliable and has galloped in four out of seven starts. He is the only horse in the first circle and should avoid a mistake here. He owns both strength and speed and should have top chance to lead this all around. 2 Oktan Håleryd showed good quality early in his career but has not been able to get it right since the move to Untersteiner. Now he has been a scratch after the last race and has got a training period. Is one of the better horses in this company and the Bold Eagle-son should be counted early even if he might need this one. 5 Bourbon Brodde galloped second last, but took a quick revenge in the last run. Is in great shape and likes the distance. 8 Hamilton About likes this small field and owns good strength.

6 Mega Occagnes makes strong efforts every time, but has met good horses or got poor draws. He can open fast and has got a nice lane and a good driver for the context who also knows the horse well. 4 Junious Heot ended up far behind in the last run but put in a strong finish via 13.5/800 meter. He is French and a little slow, but owns good strength and in a company like this he should be able to do it tough if necessary. 7 Ilex RP followed positively in quite a mediocre race last time. Good for this class and owns good speed in the end. 3 Jebo Smart is well bred and showed good strength from outside the leader when he won on December 2nd.

2 Pure Joy has been matched against tough horses as a three-year-old and met, among others, Fiftyfour second last. Was strong from first over when scoring the only victory so far. American bike and barefoot directly and certainly well prepared for this seasonal debut. 6 Veyron Bros made a strong effort in the seasonal debut last time behind a superior winner. Interesting new trainer and now with a run under his belt. Can open fast and both wins so far were scored from the lead. 10 Honey Dun Girl has shown good form for a while and likes to be driven by Rosleff. She prefers to run in front, but is in good shape and should be counted early despite this back line draw. 9 OM Joffrey finished strongly to second behind Caton last time. Got a pause afterwards but the only victory so far was taken after a break.

4 The Böhmare had not fought for victory in the V75 last time, but he had certainly earned nice money if he had not galloped with 250 meter to go. Before that, he had scored two victories in a row. Got a short break now but the fact is that he has won six out of eleven when returning after a shorter break. 7 Woogie Broline was not at his best last time and has got a break after that He has most likely got treatment. He can't open fast from the start and could get a tough start here, but he is strong and can do it tough if necessary. 3 Cubalibre Jet comes from two good efforts and Wim Paal has been successful with his horses so far this season. 2 Rocket Snapper is in good form and comes from a stable which is very often on the podium.
