

RACE 1

V4-1

Volt 2140

RANK

5 The Blomsterprinsen has taken two wins in a row after the break and the five-year-old looks in really good shape for the day. Is versatile and should have top chance. 3 Tallmons Wiking needs nice defensive journeys and is well drawn here. Early contender behind the favorite. 6 Hibo Bungal makes consistent and good efforts and is fighting for a podium position. 7 GGQurre is getting better and better after a long break from competition. Early place bid.

RANK

4 Escargoat Gar won easily from the lead last time. Now he could find the lead again and from there the four-year-old is the horse to beat. 6 Berghsäker WF was responsible for a strong finish last time and with that run under his belt he will be even a little bit better now. 5 Zynic has won his only race without a mistake. Good speed and will fight for victory if she avoids an error. 7 Black Up is consistent and good and after some good efforts he deserves a win.

RANK

6 Micke Sting comes back after a layoff and even if the form is a question mark, he should be seen with the greatest chance of winning the race regardless the journey. 5 Västerbo Vixen has not started for a while either, but should be taken seriously right away despite the competition break. 1 Ajlexes OyeComoVa is a fast starter and will get a good position. Could be in the mix here. 8 Global Born To Run has two runs under his belt and is on the way up in form and must be counted.

RANK

3 Lawina has run two races after the break and is on the way up. Quick starter and will not be easy to reach from the front. 5 Ackuratess competed directly in the V75 after a layoff. Galloped then, but has the capacity to win this type of race. In the mix. 4 Gordon Brodde is consistent and good, but needs the right defensive trip to win this. Nice starting lane and has to be counted. 6 Lokomotiv has taken all five wins from the lead and when he gets there the chances of victory increase.
