2 Bellmans Painter has put in strong and nice performances for André Eklundh. The five-year-old is stepping down in class here and with a good chance of taking the lead early on, he should have a good chance. 1 Neil Charisma won last time and showed good ability. This is the seasonal debut and his preparations have not been perfect, which makes him a bit hard to predict. 7 Mooseisloose C.C. should be improved by a run under his belt and barefoot front is a plus. 6 O.M.Joffrey made a very positive comeback after a long layoff and should continue to improve.

4 Simon Palema put in several nice performances last season and ended the year in the best possible way when he won from the lead in a tough three-year-old race. This is his seasonal debut but the four-year-old is well prepared. Good chance to lead this all round! 6 Casbah has only one win in 21 attempts but has the right attitude. The four-year-old has been matched over tough conditions and is most recently coming from a V85-final. 5 Oliver Transs R. has shown good capacity and is making his first start as a gelding here. 7 Magic Eagle has a lot of speed but is up and down in his performances.

3 Capriolo has come back strongly after a long break scoring two wins in a row. He impressed last time and the form is clearly on the way up. The Dalborg stable is in fine form and the horse can open fast. 1 I Let You Know is good for this class, but as she has not shown any starting speed behind the gate, the inside lane could be a trap. 10 Mamadou Pellini is quick and showed nice results as a 3-year-old, although he didn't win. Passes many opponents here. 5 M.T.Uxor likes these conditions and will compete barefoot for the first time.

2 Xanthis Kylie has been working hard this winter and sounds well prepared with a strong track job of 1.15/2100 m ahead of this. Even if she is not in top form yet, she should be in the fight for victory. 5 Pure Stella is also one of the better mares of her year. She looked very nice in the seasonal debut, but was not as good in the last Margareta-race. Interesting with tight starts now. 7 Sparkling Power has high expectations for this season. Owns good strength and should like this distance. 3 Selmina Venit is used to tough conditions and showed brilliant form in the last race.

8 Julia Menuncio has got a run under his belt and finished clearly decently as fourth. His form is strongly on the way up and he has shown very good capacity. Nice task despite this lane. 2 Howitends W.F. has good capacity for this class, but the form is a question mark. Still an early choice. 12 Pingis has very high capacity but is up and down. If the seven-year-old is at his best, he can pass all opponents over Axevalla's long home stretch. 7 Hiram was too fiery from the start in the last race. Is capable enough to win a race like this.

6 My Lady Emma is coming off a convincing V85-win and is showing great form compared to several of her rivals who are making their comeback. Over the short distance Jepson will be offensive from the start as the four-year-old is undefeated in the lead. 2 Hafsnymfen showed good skills last year and is well prepared for this seasonal debut. Faces nice conditions. 10 PrincessoftheDawn has worked well during the winter and is aiming for bigger tasks. Barefoot for the first time. 1 Cantal is clearly better without shoes, enjoys to run in front and especially over the short distance.
