Summary: MAMBO DU TAILLIS (10) made an excellent impression on his return, particularly as he was racing barefoot for the first time. Ideally entered here, he looks set to go very close if reproducing that level of form. MACAO MIP (2) left a strong impression despite being disqualified over this course on March 13 and is worth another chance given the promise shown that day. MONEY AIMEF (3) can be tricky to catch right, but her ability is not in doubt and she's worth forgiving her latest run. MALICE D'ATOUT (4) arrives in peak condition and is another who should have a big say in the outcome.

Summary: LANNISTER (1) has been freshened up since his victory at Cagnes-sur-Mer on March 7 and sets a solid standard here. A reliable type who rarely runs a bad race, he makes plenty of appeal as a leading contender. LOBBY MESLOIS (5) arrives on the back of three disqualifications, which is an obvious concern, but at his best he has the ability to be very competitive in a race of this nature. LEKEVIN DESBOIS (3) has been knocking on the door of late and looks sure to be involved once again if things fall into place. LATINA DU FER (4) returns from a break but has shown enough ability to suggest she shouldn't be underestimated on her comeback.
