4 Selmer I.H. is by far the best horse in this company. He has two straight wins in the Golden Division and that is worth a lot in this field. He has become more reliable for the new trainer too. Perfect task here. 7 Hesiod is the main challenger. He was second to the favorite in the last run and is in good shape. He has shown the right attitude and scored several wins the last couple of months. 2 Dizzy River likes to race in the northern part of Sweden and has been improved there. Good form. 1 Zorro Swing likes to compete on ice tracks.

1 B.Sacamano won seven races last season and scored a good V75-victory too. Galloped in the last V75-final on Solvalla but faces much easier opponents now. Interesting debut for a professional trainer too. Our pick. 7 Gun de Chanlecy is gifted and without a mistake he can match tough horses. Has put in two good efforts after a pause now and likes to race in the winter. 8 Ediego has two wins this autumn and has looked nice for the new trainer. Was good in the last run and is driven by Ulf Ohlsson again here. 4 Klammer is fast and consistent.

9 Don Viking is one of the best cold-blood horses in Sweden and he meets easier horses now than in the latest runs. He can finish strongly and won the last time he competed on ice. Top chance to win. 8 Hallsta Vinnex is in great shape and likes to compete during the winter. Finished very fast to a V75-win in the last run. 4 Backegubben is interesting here with one run under his belt. He has got a 40 meter advantage and could be hard to reach. 3 Rappodina likes the ice track and has looked nice lately without winning.

7 NoLimitJimMit has three wins in the last four runs and is in great shape. He won despite a tough journey in the last run and will be respected here. Likes this distance and will be hard to beat. 8 Rossi Palema faces perfect conditions money-wise and likes this distance too. He is a quick starter and could reach a nice position despite this number. Ulf Ohlsson again. 3 Cemonroc de Coeur looked nice in the last V75-race but got locked in with energy left at the end. Warning. 10 B.W.L.Ruthless can finish strongly with the right trip from the back. Likes the ice track and is on the way up.

8 Ravn Kiro is the youngest horse here but he has shown great skills and was on the way to a good result in the last V75-race when he lost a shoe in the final turn. Chases revenge here. 10 Ivarsviking has convinced lately and fought well to victory against a good opponent in the last run. 7 Dans Mysak won two starts back and was improved. Will be driven by Ulf Ohlsson here and that is an advantage again. 11 Hornnes Tore is fast for this class but a bit up and down. This new driver is interesting.

8 Ultimate Brodde was not successful in the last V75-final but set a new record and looked nice. Scored a good second spot in the V75 before that and faces much easier opponents this time. 12 M.T.Powertool has done well for the new trainer but in the last V75-race he was unlucky and got locked in with energy left. Poor number but he is in great shape. 1 Direct Track has also been improved for the new trainer and the victory two starts back was very convincing. 6 Magic Caviar is back in good shape. Can open fast with this number.
