RANK

1 Heartbeat Windy won comfortably last time after taking the lead with one lap to go. Quick starter and good chance to reach the front with this post. 3 Ninepoints Winner can also open fast, but will find it hard to beat our pick for the lead. 5 Mandis Express is developing well and if she handles this number, she could score a new victory. 2 Who 'The Winner has three second spots in four starts. Definitely deserves a victory and could score it here.

RANK

5 Vinn Tabac won in a good way last time at Bollnäs with some energy left. From a nice starting position he should have the greatest chance of winning this race. 6 Urkraft was in the same race that Vinn Tabac won last time, but galloped in the final turn with plenty of energy left. 8 Jazzå is a quick starter and should have the best chance of finding the lead despite this number. The only victory so far came from that position. 4 Tolvmans Olle is consistent and good and has the right attitude.

RANK

5 Miramax BR is good for this class and has stands this distance. Uses to put in a strong final lap and should have a good chance of winning the race. 2 Starstrucked owns good strength and has earlier won over the distance - ideal number and will fight well from that position. 4 Bang Boomerang has run two starts after the break and is approaching top form. Cannot be discounted. 10 Ninepoints Lasse is in good form and got stuck with energy left two starts back over the long distance.

RANK

12 Superior Bro has scored two very good wins. Number twelve over the short distance is not ideal, but at least he has earned more than those in front. Quite good chance with some racing luck. 1 Rocket Blaster galloped directly last time but did well against top horses for this class two starts back and won comfortably from the lead four starts ago. Is the favorite for the front again and can lead this throughout. 5 Winchester will normally be in the mix here if he avoids a mistake.

RANK

5 Eclectic benefited from a high pace in the lead last time but had to do the job on his own in the last half lap and scored a strong win. Has a pretty good chance for an early lead. The horse to beat then. 2 Bonnie Wibb finished well a bit behind the winner last time and won the sprint of the bunch in the V75.. Has a pretty good task here. 7 Corona Park probably galloped on the way to victory two starts back and held well behind two top horses for this class in the last V75 race. 9 Lady Silver has the right attitude and is used to meet tougher opponents.

RANK

11 Peak'n Roll makes his debut for Petri Salmela , who sounds optimistic and we know that he is for this class. Is in good form and our pick directly. 12 Ares Face did alright without impressing in the comeback, but according to the trainer the horse is certainly improved a lot now. He can finish very strongly. 6 Nash Hall is often in the mix and starts 20 meters ahead of our top duo. Should get a good trip.
