1 Jula Redmile Champ scored a brilliant win in the last start. If he repeats that effort he will be extremely hard to beat. Shoes now are normally a little minus. 4 Ghirardelli was one of the better horses of his year as a 3-year-old. Making his first start since October and could need that run under his belt. Still the main challenger. 6 Vinci Winner is matched in good company. Coming back after a layoff now, but can still win. 2 Wild Night is possible too in this field.

RANK

5 Contessa OE has not been at the top in the two starts this year, but is normally good for the class. Will get another chance. 7 Eye To Eye galloped in the seasonal debut last year. Barefoot is gifted well be the solution this time. Is considered. 1 Onyx River is acting a bit unevenly but has enough capacity for this group if she were to compete at the top. 8 Global Gold Rush makes his debut under new trainer. Boring lane, but a contender if things work out along the way in this small the field.

2 Ulaya started her career with eight straight wins, before she had two straight gallops. Changed management since then and is now with Holger Ehlert instead of Timo Nurmos . Must be seen with absolute top chance, even though she is a filly who meets stallions/geldings. 8 Fly Express is tough and strong in every way. Should not be overlooked despite the lane. 7 Mister Kabuki did well in the last a bit behind the leader . 10 Nepenthe Boko is at a disadvantaged from the starting position but is in good form.
