5 Hot Blaze is well-bred. Started his career a bit slowly, but has been clearly improved lately. Should avoid a mistake now and faces quite easy opponents this time. Good chance to win. 6 Hans Palema got locked in with energy left in the last race. Should be considered early. 10 Second Serve had to fight in the last race but gave up after a heavy trip. Different conditions here. 4 Ile De France didn't show anything special in the last race. Has been matched in easy companies.

1 Oitavos has done alright and is interesting with Victor Rosleff from a perfect starting position. Completely different opposition now than what she has faced in the last three starts. Our pick. 6 Onyx River has done okay at the beginning of her career and is certainly improving by every race she runs. 3 Catalaia did alright last time even though she didn't impress. Should reach a nice position from this lane. 5 Queen Le Soleil is not entirely reliable but has shown quite good speed.

7 Back To Work has not started for a long time and his form is of course hard to predict. However, he showed good pace for most of last season and can open fast. 12 Sanoroc News has two runs under his belt after a long break. His form seems to be strongly on the way up. 5 Who's Lonely has done alright but perhaps not impressed. Should be considered early as she is a quick starter. 11 Diplomacy comes from Mattias Djuse's form stable. Faces tough conditions, but is possible anyway. Needs some racing luck though.

7 Chocolatemere takes a big step down in class this time compared to what she has faced in the last couple of starts. A slightly different task with this handicap, but the horse has good speed. 2 Timotejs Gamble has galloped in half of eight starts, but shown good capacity when avoiding a mistake. 3 Elevation has been clearly improved during the autumn and winter. Nice task here and driven by Carl Johan Jepson. 1 Coraline does well most of the time. Certainly gets a nice trip.

8 Global Embargo held strongly in the last race despite a journey from mostly first over. Same lane this time but could reach the front and he will be hard to beat from there. 12 Västerbo Tramp is poorly drawn, but together with Magnus A Djuse the horse has to be considered anyway. 11 Speedy Cash Vicane does well most of the time. Is strong and an early choice with the right journey. 4 Jopp is coming more and more. The form is better than the results suggest.

1 Knud is not a superstar, but really good for this class. He is an early contender for the lead and last time he visited Mantorp he won from the front. 10 Four White E.G. beat Specification from first over last time. Two runs under his belt should mean that the top form is close and despite this number over this distance, he should have a good chance. 2 Specification is doing great over the short distance. Finds it hard to reach the front here. 11 Get Gas is in good shape and we forgot the last race.
