9 Let Me Go earned the most money last year and has shown top form recently. She faces three handicaps here but should have a good chance anyway. 2 Diggins could possibly take the lead and if so she is an early challenger to our favorite. 3 Seventh Key is also interesting in the first circle. She is clearly better than the latest results show and can surprise without any mistakes. 6 Foreign Affairs was not at her best in the last race when she was heavily backed. Two runs under her belt now and should be on the way up.

3 Bozeman was seventh in the last race but faced much better opposition. He had done very well before that and should have top chance in this field. Banker. 7 Maestro M.H. won only one race in 23 starts last year but is not that bad and is possible if the favorite should make a break. 6 Lindysintermingle had a pretty good season last year and is better than the latest results suggest. Early choice behind the favorite. 4 Yesyesyes wins very rarely but is quite consistent and could be a contender for a place bet.

RANK

5 Dufлот galloped in the last race but had taken several wins in a row before that. Has a good lane and if he avoids a mistake he has top chance to win. 8 Harpos New Yorker has shown great form of late. He was second in a tougher race last time and took a good win before that. Difficult draw. 1 Carat is fast from the start and will certainly get a good trip from here. Should not be overlooked. 2 Tickettothemoon wins quite often and could be in the fight for victory if he is at his best. Excellent lane.

7 Kamiro has only one win in 22 starts but the horse has shown really consistent and good form towards the end. Our idea in a fairly open race. 5 Fröyu Frik has only two third places in 26 starts but is clearly better than that. In this modest field he can take his first win. 8 Alm Tea comes from a really good second spot and seems in fine form. Should be considered early. 2 Lille Utah could take the lead here and will of course be dangerous for victory in this weak race.

5 Brosjan is not a superstar but in this field he should be considered early. He has two fourth places and is an early choice with the right trip. 9 Roald Kjempe is not completely reliable but clearly better than the latest results suggest. Early choice without a mistake. 8 Finnskog Zolan didn't win a race last year but is better than that. He galloped under attack in the last race and could surprise. 7 Storm Odin has not won for a while either but he seems in good form and is one of several contenders in this hopeless race.

5 Royal Act made the most money last year and has a good task here. Comes from a second spot and is our idea. 2 Billiandollar Rags took a nice win two starts back but galloped last time. Is well drawn and will probably get a good journey. 1 Corazon has a run under his belt after a long break and this number is perfect. Could get a nice inside trip and is an early choice. 8 Kangaroo is often heavily backed but has not really lived up to the expectations. Tricky number of course but could be an outsider.
