8 Alma Prins is the best elite horse in Trøndelag and has already won six races this year. Looks reliable today and won against similar horses last time out. 3 Il Jerven has taken three strong second places and has maintained his fine form. Will have to fight for second place behind our winner. 1 Edens Odin is quick off the start and easy to place. Will likely lead for a long time and is mainly a contender for a top-three finish. 4 Borkmira is also a horse for those betting on top-three finishes. Won four races last year and is approaching top form. In the mix with the right defensive trip.

7 Lindysintermingle is a very exciting three-year-old who scored an impressive win in the debut. The fact that the horse is moving up in class is not a concern. 1 Rolex Ravin is also moving up in class and seems to be developing rapidly. Won easily from the lead last time out and could lead for a long time again. 10 Ikaros Barsk is chasing his first career win and had some energy left when finishing fourth behind Lindysintermingle last time out. 5 Swish was not far behind Rolex Ravin last time out and scored a nice second place. Is improving with each start.

1 Haug Mira debuted on a heavy and demanding track last time out. Still looked like the horse was going to win when she galloped. Faces nice conditions in the race here and could lead from start to finish. 2 Anna Fra Skaråsen faces also nice conditions money-wise in the race. She has the capacity and took a nice victory on March 7th. 3 Buås Balder is chasing his first career win. Has been consistent and performed well recently without winning. Could challenge if he avoids making any mistakes. 8 Rofstad Teddy could be a real surprise. In terms of capacity, no one can beat him, but his tendency to gallop is a concern.

6 Tustna Svarten has a very good chance of winning if he avoids making any mistakes. Galloped in a clear lead with 700 meters left when he last participated in V75. 11 Jan Livar won three races last year and is quick and consistent. Faces nice conditions money-wise and meets quite easy opponents here. 4 Admiral B. showed a high level last year when the horse won four races. Now comes out after a break and could challenge right away. 1 Brosjan came back nicely last time out after trouble on the final backstretch. Has got an interesting number one here.

8 Solør Jo was impressive in the victory last time out against similar competition as he faces here. Needs some racing luck with this number but he is our top horse here. 10 Hauk Viktor came back very well after galloping in V75 last time out. Started the year with two straight wins. An early conteder if he avoids making any mistakes. 5 Faks Trym is capable of a lot when the horse is at its best. Wasn't at his best last time out but is now back after treatment. Can beat everyone in this field. 7 Terne Pil was steady as second place last time out behind Solør Jo. Has shown good form throughout the year and deserves a victory. Needs a nice trip from the back with this number.

7 Golden Dream M.E. has a very high top level and won in the golden division in Sweden earlier this winter. Has a race under his belt now. 4 Rambunctious Ravin is very good for this class. Two starts back he impressed immediately for the new trainer. Can do it tough. 8 Evil Enok M.E. made his comeback last time after an eleven-month break. He won the Oslo Grand Prix in 2018, so the capacity is there. 9 Rocket Man got a tough trip in the last run after a poor start. He faces tougher opponents than in a long time, but with the right journey from the back, he could be in the mix.
