8 Royal Steel got a really tough start in the last race but showed the right attitude and finished strongly as second in a Margareta race. With that run under his belt her form should on the way up. Early choice despite this starting position. 7 Grace In Heaven has shown great speed and has certainly become tough from the two-year-old season in the USA. 4 Royaute Boko has shown a lot of promise in her early career. The Norwegian bridle gave a nice effect last time. 2 Go On Brodda has been matched in tough companies and shown that she is gifted.

8 Speed Change had a phenomenal season last year and the five-year-old has improved for Robert Bergh, where he has scored four straight wins. Is working well and should be considered early right after the break. 3 Dostojevskij has shown really nice form straight after the winter break. Is a quick starter and should reach the front and then it could be a great duel to watch. 7 Eagle Trot is up and down. Likes to be driven by Magnus Djuse. 9 Wehadthemall performs at a consistent and high level.

3 Inter K.P. looked splendid when he passed the whole field without shoes for the first time in the last race. Is in fine form, could find the lead and has a good chance over this short distance. 6 Mansa Musa Mearas has shown good capacity and convinced with three wins in a row last winter. The four-year-old is fast, but also strong and can do it tough. 4 Strawberry Goo goo is making her debut this year, but has worked strongly and is used to tough opposition. 5 Bys Yubraj does not always trot well but has the capacity to challenge.

3 Love To The Limit finished clearly positive and set a strong new record in the seasonal debut. The form should be on the way up and now she competes barefoot back, which has been a clear advantage. 6 Pearl Di Quattro has been competing for most of the year and developed gradually. Quick starter and fine form. Early choice. 4 Global Good News ended the three-year-old season with a third place in the Breeders' Crown final. Seasonal debut now. 7 Catchagaga Volo won the Norwegian Trotting Criterium last year, beating the stallions.

1 You Bow To No One may not be at quite the same level as his two main challengers. Could reach the front and we expect him to lead this for a long time. 4 Nightlife In was very nice when he won the E3 final at Örebro last summer. The season was long and in the Kriteriet he was not at his best. A very exciting seasonal debut here. 8 Recycle Cash developed strongly and showed enormous speed resources as a 3-year-old, where he had a crazy finish in the BC final. 6 Gangster Vendil is a quick starter and in top form.
