1 Avant Garde started the career well with four wins in five starts. He did not compete as a five- and six-year-old but seems on the way up again and comes from a good win. 4 Grappelli scored a good second spot two starts back. He is not reliable but has become more consistent and should be followed. 7 M.M.Hot One is a quick starter and likes to run in the front. In that case he could be dangerous. 5 A Girl Has No Name is good enough to be in the mix here. If she is at her best she will fight for victory.

6 Jamie Sisu won both starts as a three-year-old and after the last impressive seasonal debut he is still undefeated. Good chance. 7 Maroon Five found the lead in the final turn and scored an outstanding victory two starts back. If he does not gallop like in the last start he will be in the mix. 8 Federal Reserve was third two starts back and did alright. Faces good horses again here. Place chance. 9 Västerbo Kid had energy left three starts back and handles both this distance and to attack from behind.

15 Grit Brodda made her debut for a new trainer last year and won directly in the lead. She has won half of her starts for this trainer and is our pick. 3 Mellby Image has not been successful lately but got poor numbers too. Is much better drawn now and she has scored her wins in the lead. 8 Staro Playmate won in May and was improve. Did quite well too in the last long distance race. 5 Millie de Veluwe has been heavily backed in Boden but either got locked in or galloped. Possible without a mistake.
