NORTH LIFE (7) is another with the talent to go close, although much may depend on her behaviour at the start after proving vulnerable in that department. Consistent NAYA PIYA (8) continues to knock on the door and should be involved once more.

Summary: A notable booking sees Jean-Michel Bazire make the trip solely for NEO DE GUEZ (4), a colt who created a favourable impression when scoring on debut and looks capable of following up. He sets the standard but faces opposition from NETEYAM (10), who appears close to opening his account after a series of encouraging efforts. NIOSCO RED (7) performed with credit at Chartres and should remain competitive, while NANTIS DU CHATAULT (1) was an unlucky loser last time and is better than the bare result suggests.
