9 Izod Zet is unbeaten after two starts and has won in different ways. Now the three-year-old faces better opposition than before, but should still have the greatest chance to win the race. 8 Danville has taken two straight wins from the lead, but he seems as good from behind. 5 Maestro Unico comes from a win in a nice time and is in the mix again with a similar effort. 6 King Of Trotter is a quick starter and from the front he leads the race for a long time.

3 Max Montana followed well last time after a race from far behind. Quick starter and should be able to find the lead and is then the horse to beat. 6 J.S.Kenjan has put in consistent and good efforts, but is still without a win. Good draw and should be considered. 8 Sophie owns quite good speed. Has been a scratch three times after the last start. Outsider if well prepared. 2 Fanfar is consistent and is the first victory ever here.

3 Over My Shoulder has been competing in tough races at the end and done alright. Has a nice lane and will reach a nice position. Good enough to win the race. Our pick. 5 Heavenly May is very fast behind the gate and normally finds the lead. Does not win very often, but this looks like an interesting task. 8 Robthebank did well last time a bit behind the leader. Has better form than the results show. 7 In Love Boko is driven with an American bike for the first time, which is interesting.

5 Locale Boko came back well after galloping last time. Nice victory four starts ago. Two out of two from the lead. Has to be considered from all positions. Fights for victory. 4 Lightzon has not started for a while. The form is of course hard to predict, but has good capacity and should be considered. 11 Calla Frontline put in a good effort last time. Better with that run under his belt and is possible despite the starting position. 12 Waggon Zacker comes back after the break. Has been a scratch twice after the last run. Normally in the fight for victory.

5 Kleppbest looked in in good shape as locked in last time after an early mistake. Is strong and stands the distance. Per Lennartsson for the first time is interesting. Our winner. 2 Borkvinn S.K. got defeated on the finish line last as second. Has shown top form for a long time and should normally be considered early here. 6 GGQurre won at stayer distance three starts ago. Has the capacity to fight for victory. 9 Prinsen Af Sola has earlier won over the distance.

3 Feeling Fat scored a splendid win last time. Likes these conditions and should have the greatest chance to win this race from a perfect starting position. 2 Vichel J.C. won in a nice way last time. Quick starter and reaches a good position. Has to be considered. 5 Jaguar Sisu found room late at Skellefteå last time. Easier opponents now and is one of several horses who can win this race. 11 Bismillah Face makes an interesting debut for the new trainer. Difficult draw, but should not be discounted completely.
