2 Beautiful Disaster is speedy - especially from the start. Lane two over the short distance is perfect and even though the opposition is tough she will not be easy to pass. 9 Popup Pellini has too little money for her potential. She has been ill since last time, but the stable's reports are good. 7 Grodda Jet did well in the last race and is consistent in her performances. 11 Rocky Vrijthout has been matched in much tougher companies.

7 S.B.'sPeakyBlinder seems to have found top form. Lane seven is difficult, but he can open quickly and in this low-class race he should be in the fight for victory. 6 Bys Bankir returns after a break, but has trained well and if he reaches the lead he could take the first win of his career. 2 Marshmallow was good five starts back and should be considered from this lane. 4 Mizz Ex has two good efforts under his belt.

4 Horg Blessen took a nice win on Saturday. Not completely stable, but fast if he works and the most likely outcome is that Östre will be offensive and drive to the lead. He will then be beaten there. 8 Jerkeld Stjernén is in good form. Despite a bad starting position he can finish well and should be considered early. 11 Kringlers Attila will have to attack from behind this time, but has good speed to challenge. 3 Björn Borksson can win with the right trip.

5 ObiWan Keeper is developing well. Nice post now and with an offensive trip it is not impossible that he can take the lead. However, this is not a must as the horse is good enough to win from other positions as well. 7 Shenanigans set a new record in the last race without being at his top and should be able to do even better now. 3 Kencio Jaam is comfortable in the lead (3/4) and should not be overlooked if he is allowed to dictate the pace a bit. 8 Who's Funky is better than the latest results show.

1 Ilia is developing all the time. The Inner lane at Åmål is not the easiest, but she showed good starting speed last time and with several fast outside around her she can get help to hold the lead. In that position she is the horse to beat. 6 Midnight Rhyme has done well so far and should be considered from most positions. 3 Miss Magdalena scored a strong win and should be followed with a similar effort as last time. 7 Kahbean is a bit tricky, but also speedy.

11 Speed Change has scored a couple of good wins for Bergh. However, the turns have been quite tricky for the five-year-old, who should like today's clockwise turns. He has a run under his belt now. 9 Jeriko Brick is in the form of his life and has shown that he is good from behind too. Is also going down in class. 2 Kingston D.K. has not been successful for Törnqvist but is much better than the latest results show. 10 Belgique usually does well straight after a layoff.

5 Esteban Bar is as strong as he is fast and is in top form today. If he gets past his main rivals, half the battle is won, but he can do it tough too if required. 1 Ready Creation has not been at his best but clockwise turns could suit the horse well. He has good capacity for a race like this. 3 Nickel Occagnes has such high peaks that he can match the best too in this field. 2 Sultan Sea should not be overlooked but needs some racing luck.
