1 Langli has shown great capacity for this class and was well prepared for the comeback last time, even though he had to stay home. Now he has had more time to recharge the batteries. If he is at his best, his chances of winning should be good. 4 Oregon Boko has shown both speed and good strength for this class and makes a very interesting debut for this trainer. He is certainly well prepared. 7 Katoki held strongly as third in the seasonal debut. With that run under his belt, the form should be improved. 6 Love Express W.F. is quick and comes with fine form.

7 Älvdans lost a second place in the last race after a misjudgment by the driver. The four-year-old horse is in good shape and has met tough horses. Good number and from the front she has top chance. 14 Breidabliks Bombay is matched in tougher companies and showed improving form in the last race. 40 meter handicap is not easy - but he meets much easier opponents now. 5 First Wise L is tricky and gallops a lot, but is an early contender without a mistake. 4 John Carpenter is better than the latest results show and should be considered early in this type of race.

3 Preposterous convinced in his debut last autumn finishing 13.5/1000 meter. The Don Fanucci Zet-son returns after a training period and is certainly well prepared. 5 Euron Face is very gifted and has great capacity for this class. Last time he galloped in the final turn with energy left. Not reliable, but he is a contender without a mistake. 2 Medaljon won easily in the debut, albeit in easier company. Is working well and has improved after the last race. 1 Under Contract is not completely reliable, but has looked improved recently.

9 Con Padre lost a lot from the start last time and never got a real chance due to the double handicap. The Lähdekorpi stable has found a nice task for the seven-year-old who has faced much tougher horses towards the end. Top chance. 2 Trend makes an exciting debut under the saddle and is also ridden by top jockey Carré. Is better than the latest results show. Competes barefoot straight away. 4 Tjurkhults Stella has done well under the saddle but is making her seasonal debut this year, which makes the form hard to predict. In the mix if well prepared. 7 Prutti Di Mare has shown good form and was heavily backed two starts back in similar company.

8 Don Quijote Face galloped on the way to a good result in the last V85 race. Has very good capacity for this class and he is our pick in this company. 1 Nasha looked really nice in the seasonal debut where she got locked in with energy left up behind the leader. Quick starter, run under her belt and if she is allowed to dictate the pace, she could lead this throughout. 7 Datos Rainbow is in great shape and has shown that he is good from all positions. 2 New York Lobell is a strong finisher.

5 Warrior's Tale has improved a lot of late and impressed with two wins in a row last winter. He put in a good effort in the last V85 race, but it turned out afterwards that he was not completely fit. Easier now. 1 Staro Peanut was mediocre last time but there were explanations for that performance. This short distance is a plus. If improved he could lead this all the way. 9 Victoria L.L. is an early choice too after several top performances in tough companies. 10 Amazone O.C. has good capacity for this class and the horse has also shown fine form of late.
