1 Irish Hope is coming from a strong seasonal debut as the runner-up to Ayani. She's likely to have improved since and is the top pick in this maiden race. 3 Laughingof Fear looked strong in the qualifier and has an appealing pedigree. One of many with a chance behind our top pick. 2 Waldemar put in a decent effort in the qualifier behind Step Aside in September last year. A possible challenger if he's well-prepared for his debut. 7 Basixx Carltras was a good third in his debut last year behind Wortheverypingin and Footfall. He shouldn't be ruled out if he's wintered well.

3 Ayman is a slow starter, but usually finishes strongly. Was second to Bieshan in this race last year and is our pick. 4 Mohaymin improved significantly in the final three appearances of last season and is a serious contender based on that form. 7 Elmajed had a brilliant season last year with the exception of the seasonal debut over the short distance of 1200 meters. Should not be underestimated despite being the stable's second choice. 5 Muna May scored a very impressive victory in the seasonal debut and should have no problem with this longer distance. A typical outsider.

1 Ocean Girl never had a real chance from an outside draw in the last sprint race. However, she looked good at the finish. She is the clear top pick here. 10 Le Rouge Chinois faced decent competition last year. He'll wear blinkers for his seasonal debut and is the main challenger despite the outside draw. 7 Haajima comes from a good seasonal debut at Klampenborg where she was narrowly beaten by Casivo. She's a strong contender for the top three. 3 Millie Grazie is well-placed in the ratings at 64 but prefers to race on turf. She's a contender for a place.

2 Headora followed up a win with a decent performance behind promising Pratia. Has also won over the current distance of 1200 dt. A strong contender. 5 Malibu Lagoon put in a decent performance last time out, although somewhat strained. A possible challenger on her day. 3 Rastapopulus put in a couple of decent performances under similar conditions last year. Should be considered early on with jockey Elione Chaves aboard. 6 Credit Card faces nice conditions in this seasonal debut and is one of many outsiders in this open Bronze Handicap race.
