6 Gladiator S was a bit fiery last time and opened 12.6/10 but got tired over the home stretch. He faces good conditions here and can open fast. He has previously shown that he likes tight starts. 12 Mellby Mammon scored three impressive wins in a row for Timo Nurmos last year. Seasonal debut and tough conditions, but he should be considered directly here. 2 Twigs Like U made a strong recovery last time and should be close to top form with two runs under his belt. 9 Naledi B has good speed for this race but is looking for the right form.

9 My Creation finished 13.4/1000 meter last time and driving Skoglund was very pleased with the horse afterwards. Both wins have been taken from the lead, but the three-year-old is certainly good from behind as well. 12 Uriah Tile got a nice trip in the last race and won very easily. The Hagoort stable is in fine form and produces many talented young horses. 2 Global Good Time is much better than the latest results show and put in a strong finish in the last race. 11 Askefroa was allowed to dictate the pace in the seasonal debut but made a nice impression. Better now.

8 Kent's Marre has previously done well after a layoff and is also stepping down in class. Despite this lane he is our pick as he can handle a tough final lap three wide if necessary. 12 Armando Salazar owns good strength, which he might need from this poor lane. The four-year-old is coming off a good performance and is also getting faster. 2 Andragathos was in the Treåringseliten last year. Hasn't convinced for this trainer and but is really good for this low class. 10 Even You won an easy race last time and showed fine form again.

7 Tracy is a nice trotter. Has scored nine wins in 16 starts and shown the right attitude. Despite this layoff she should have top chance! 9 Havana Heaven put in a phenomenal finish and passed Bourbonista over the home stretch in a test race for the Stochampionatet. Fine form. 1 Rocket Queen finished well as third in the last race. The stable is in good form and she can lead this for a long time from a nice number. 8 Who's That Girl competed barefoot for the first time in the last race and impressed a lot. Could repeat that effort here.

7 Leo The Lion faces nice conditions in this handicap race. The five-year-old has shown good form lately and certainly gets an offensive trip here. 8 Freeload showed good pace from the lead last time. The capable five-year-old is not as rich or experienced as our pick, but could still be in the mix here. 2 VilliamSon BB has the least experience in this field, but is well drawn and will certainly get a nice trip. 6 Legacy Of Sound finished well in the last amateur race. Prefers the short distance, but is fast with the right backs.

3 Eagle Rock was really nice in his debut for Daniel Redén. Is mainly strong but finished 8.5/800 too. Is not a quick starter but can do it tough. Our winner. 6 Kojak Sisu made his debut at Lindesberg and won easily. Opens fast and is the favorite to find the lead. Main challenger in that case. 8 Joint Chef has the right attitude but once again the horse is poorly drawn. 1 Star Cash looked improved as locked in last time. Nice number.
