Summary: MON PRESTIGE NEMO (13) returns from a break but catches the eye racing barefoot for the occasion. He looks more than capable of landing a contest of this nature and is taken to make a winning comeback. The main threats may come from a trio of recent winners. MAXIMUS DU FAOJET (16) is particularly well treated under the conditions and commands obvious respect despite his wide draw. MANOUCHE (10) is another to consider, especially with Alexis Collette back in the sulky. The progressive MYTHIQUE GEMA (8) continues to head in the right direction and remains open to further improvement.

Summary: A closely matched contest where several runners make appeal, and little separates the leading contenders. LUCRECE DE CORDAY (12) is arguably the most talented in the field, but her chances will hinge on her ability to remain focused throughout. LIGNE BLANCHE (13) returns to the scene of her latest victory and that familiarity could prove a significant asset. LEA GIBUS (7) could prove difficult to reel in if allowed to dictate the tempo on her own terms. LICORNVERASPERANZA (11) has been showing encouraging signs in recent outings and appears to be heading in the right direction.

LEONARD DE VINCI (12) arrives in excellent heart following that recent success and is unlikely to surrender without a fight. LYNX DU RUISSEAU (9) demands considerable respect. He has been faultless when partnered by Matthieu Abrivard and his consistency makes him a serious contender too.
