1. SEREMINI - Finished 6th on debut over 1600m and was possibly just in need off that outing but will no doubt be ready to tackle the 1800m. Has strong credentials

2. ESPRIT DES BOIS - Finished a long last on debut over 1500m and he will need to take a significant step forward on that effort. Hard to fancy

3. COLT PILOT - He ran last of twelve on debut without showing anything and will need to show a better side of himself at the second attempt. More required

4. MARCHE D'ALIGRE - Ran 3rd on debut over 2000m and will be a lot more wiser to the task at hand despite dropping in trip. Each way claims

5. LORD SINCLAIR - Ran a positive race first time out when back in 2nd position and is open to further improvement with experience on his side. Leading contender

6. HUMAN EVOLUTION - This colt has finished 5th in his two outings to date, failing to land a blow on the rivals in front of him and could have his work cut out Others preferred

7. AUTUMN TWIST - He has produced two fair efforts to date over the 1600m and now steps up in distance which should be right up his alley. Should be on the premises

8. WHAT ELSE - Put in a rather moderate debut performance when held back in 6th position and will need to show more now down in trip. Others make more appeal

Summary : LORD SINCLAIR (5) made an encouraging start to his racing career and there was a lot to like about that effort. SEREMINI (1) should only improve on his debut effort and looks to be one of the main challengers. MARCHE D'ALIGRE (4) should be able to put his best foot forward and could get involved. AUTUMN TWIST (7) could be the lurker here as he goes over a trip which will eek good improvement out of him.

Handicap - Flat - EUR € 40.000

1. FORTUNE - He has produced two solid efforts in Listed company at his last two starts and will appreciate the drop in class over a favorable trip. One to beat

2. SPEECHMAN - He took a considerable step up in class last time out and it proved to be a bit too strong for him finishing 6L behind the top choice. Place chance

3. HALEINE - Well held in her last two runs against stronger company and now down in class, she could find form. Place chance

4. WINTER'S LOVE - This filly hasn't been the most consistent of late but is clearly capable of running a forward race in this class. Place chance at best

5. FIRST SNOW MOON - She ran a fair race straight out the maidens and despite taking on a challenging field, she could outrun her odds. Potential lurker

6. KIEVSKY - This individual does not represent the most eye catching form and will need to do more in order to challenge. Others preferred

7. CAMERON - Finished 5th last time out at the track over 1600m and will need to show more if he is to be competitive. Tough ask here

Summary : FORTUNE (1) looks to be the one to follow here after some fair runs against stronger, he could fill the pockets of supporters with a winning performance. SPEECHMAN (2) has decent form and would set the standard if it wasn't for Fortune who has his number on their last match. HALEINE (3) will enjoy taking a drop in class and should be able to show up better. WINTER'S LOVE (4) can easily run a good race but needs to find some consistency.

- 8. NARMADA - This filly has been tested at quite a strong level over in Germany but she hasn't particularly fired which would suggest that its been tough for her. Needs to improve

Summary : PARCHEMIN (4) has unfortunately just found his match of late but could finally get his day to shine over this track and trip. QUEST THE MOON (6) is quite a consistent hard knocking sort that is in good form and should make a bold bid. RESHABAR (5) brings the right credentials into this race and could go well. - 4. ALBEDO - This gelding doesn't arrive in the most appealing form and needs to start improving in order to get competitive. More needed
- 5. TWIN BOY - He arrives here in arguably career best form having notched up two wins in his last three starts and will be competitive despite the drop in trip. Solid claims

- 8. CERVARO - His last two starts have been his best performances in some time and he is heading in the right direction having tasted success two starts back. Lively contender
- 9. RED NUDE ROUGE - Finished 7th last time out and has some fair form to her name which makes her a contender even more so with a rating drop now. Potential lurker
- 10. ILLUMINATING - He remains a maiden from twenty five efforts and his recent form is certainly not positive which leaves little to desire. Would be a shock winner
- 11. ACREGATE - Maiden galloper from twenty outings and that doesn't look likely to change anytime soon. Would be a surprise winner
- 12. POLIVATE - This filly ran a good race two starts back and she is one to keep an eye on having taken a huge drop in the ratings. Value play

- 3. KILIA - Two solid efforts over track and trip in her last two appearances and she is definitely set to go close. Big chance

- 11. OLIVA - This filly doesn't represent the strongest French form and needs to start shaping up before time runs out. Others preferred
