8. SAINTE HELENE - Fair 4th last time in a Grade 3 hurdle at this track over 3600m on September 17. Tries fences and can make her presence felt

9. NAUSICAA KARWIN - Three placed runs of late, 3rd last time at this track in a Class 2 chase on September 22 over 3500m. Seems progressive and can not be excluded

Summary: NALKO DES MOTTES (1) won over hurdles and made a pleasing start over fences at this track when scoring in a conditions chase last month. He is marginally preferred ahead of NARUTO BANBOU (7), who has arguably better form over hurdles and has the size to do well in this discipline. SAINTE HELENE (8) is lightly raced over hurdles and is an interesting recruit to fences. She can have a say, as can NAUSICAA KARWIN (9), who has been placed on her two runs over fences and is one to pay attention to.

Summary: MAGIADAME (8) is out of a classy mare that won numerous times over jumps, including Graded races over fences. She will be well tuned and is preferred ahead of LA GARDE CONTRE (2), who is also well-bred and out of a Graded placed mare. Summary: PASCARD DE BEAUSSE (2) was a game winner in a Listed handicap chase at this track in mid-September on his latest start over 4400m. The step up in trip should pose no concern and he can confirm the form with KALIBRE (15), who was second in the same race recently and does meet on better weight terms today. LE PETIT CHEVAL (1), found Grade 1 too much last time in May, but did win the Prix William Et Alec Head chase (Grade 3) in April and thrives at this track. AMY DU KIFF (3) has been placed on two of his three runs this year and can have a say in proceedings.

RAFFLES JET (6) is another to pay attention to and can play a lead role. NON SANS RAISON (2) makes up the shortlist.

Summary: MALBEC DU MATHAN (3) is the tentative option in a very open race. He has won at this track over fences and ran a creditable race on his latest start over slightly further in a competitive handicap hurdle late last month. His main danger could be BALMORAL (5), who was a decent second over this course on his penultimate start in a handicap hurdle in mid-September. KABRIOLE DE SIVOLA (12) has solid each-way claims of an attractive racing weight. POMME ROSE (6) arrives after a respectable fourth at this track last month and should once again have a say in proceedings.
