1 Jopp has been splendid lately, so even last time after a tough journey in a heat for the Golden Clock where he got defeated but was very brave. 5 Picobello has good capacity and put in a nice effort in the V75 despite a short break this summer. 6 Coin Master is on the way up with two races under his belt, he had to run three wide during the whole race in the last V75 race. 10 Elegant Jet started the career with four straight wins. Interesting debut for a new trainer now.

AUTO 2140

RANK

8 Våler Nikolai has looked good for a long time, especially when he got locked in with energy left two starts back. Most recently he won on an ice track. He is the quickest starter and is seen with a reasonable chance. 9 Tekno Jerven is the best horse and flew to the finish last time, but the risk of galloping is always high. 7 Oppgårdsdrängen is good and fought for victory with Våler Nikolai when they met at the end of November. However, he is best barefoot. 6 Björlifanner has good capacity, interesting driver now.

V64-6

RANK

5 King Chaos has done well under the saddle for the new trainer and before he has put in good efforts in sulky races in the V75. Could find an early lead here and is our pick. 8 Gianluca DK is strong and solid and showed the right attitude last time after taking the lead early on. 12 Kathrine SH finished fast to victory and was heavily backed in the V75 last time but never got a real chance. 6 Gordon Brodde is strong and has good capacity but he has not started for a very long time. The form is a question mark.
