9 Pearl Kayz is a good horse for this class but galloped from a tricky number in the last V75 race. Owns good capacity and the six-year-old has both the strength and the speed to pass all opponents in this four-horse race. 5 Nice Steel stands this long distance and looked in good shape when locked in last time. 11 Lobella finished second in the last race and has been matched in relatively tough companies. A bit easier here and is in fine form. 8 Herina Sotto is well prepared for this race and the long distance feels exciting.

1 Ejnar Face has scored a couple of impressive wins and finishing around 12/1000. Is an inexperienced 3-year-old but has shown great speed. Normally Kolgjinis' promise will be hard to reach. 7 Lets Go Ostedantik won the Danish Uppfödningslöpning last year. With a couple of runs under her belt, she is in good shape. Is tough and passes many opponents. 2 Isaac Wynn is undefeated after two attempts and seems to have the right attitude. 6 Last Cool Cash is speedy and from this perfect position he should get a nice trip.

8 King Legend won very easily in the last race after finding the lead with one lap to go. The distance is the right one. Good form and good chance of winning. 6 Yukon Töll has won nine out of 13 races and impressed a lot. Is far too good for this class and is certainly in the mix here too. 2 Nickel Occagnes has not competed since October last year, but the five-year-old has shown great capacity and the right attitude. Interesting debut for this trainer. 10 Baron D.Sox likes this distance and has shown good form lately.

2 Nyras Lars R. was back after being castrated last time and showed his great capacity right away. With that run under his belt, his form is even improved and the new gelding should have top chance. 7 Godfather has put in two strong performances at the end and shown that he is versatile. 9 Le Roi Mearas was not fit in the last race which explains the mediocre effort. Good capacity and nice lane for a defensive trip. 6 Longgone River has got a couple of runs under his belt after a very long absence and is starting to get closer to top form.

Is developing strongly and will be even improved by this race, says Christoffer Eriksson. 7 Kanon Laser has high capacity but failed in the last race.
