AL BASTI EQUIWORLD, DUBAI APPRENTICE HANDICAP (6)
4yo+ (Rated 0-65) £7,500 6f (1210 Metres)

Going: Good to Firm

Right handed. A loop course, and despite the run-in of seven furlongs (with a right-handed elbow after three furlongs), those ridden handily can gain an advantage as the gallop is often on the steady side around the sharp loop section. The straight course is uphill throughout the last half-mile and rather testing, especially for early season two-year-olds, so an ability to see out the trip thoroughly is important. Races over a mile and three quarters are started without stalls.

Draw: N/A Pace Information: Very Weak

1	4	THANK THE LORD (17) (C, D, BF) 413/814-26 6 10-0 63.5kg	99
		Keiran Burke Jack Dace Six-time winner including at this course. Last of 6 as 11/8 favourite in handicap at Bath 17 days ago, can have a line put through the run. Worth another chance with visor removed after promising yard debut two runs back.
2	5	SILENT FLAME (18) (CD) b 100 132100-70 7 9-12 62.6kg
		Rod Millman Fred Daly Dual C&D winner who won with blinkers at Goodwood last August. Last of 11 in a handicap at Newbury (10/1) 18 days ago when again running without blinkers. They are back on today which should spark a revival based on previous form.
3	1	LITTLE MISS MAGIC (IRE) (19) 95 33950-882 4 9-9 61.2kg
		Patrick Chamings Isobelle Chalmers (5lb/2kg) Only 1 win from 15 starts and 9 runs without success, ran second of 14 in handicap at Windsor (18/1) 19 days ago, dwelt at start but led before being headed late. Building up to something from a reduced mark.
4	2	THE COLA KID (18) (D) b+t 93 40834718 8 9-4 59.0kg
		Grace Harris Matthew Lloyd Slater (5lb/2kg) Won at Bath (11/2) 36 days ago, then eighth of 11 in stronger handicap at Newbury (28/1) 18 days ago when led early but weakened.
5	3	MY BOY JACK (11) (D, BF) 93 46854232 6 8-13 56.7kg
		Kevin Frost Alfie Gee (7lb/3kg) Three recent placed efforts on turf including second of 8 in 6f handicap at Brighton (10/3) 11 days ago, running on well after brave inside run. Without a win in 23 attempts.

Thank The Lord can have his last run ignored when meeting trouble at Bath, while Little Miss Magic showed promise when runner-up at Windsor recently.

1	5	SAINT TERRY (IRE) (14) 45 4 9-12 62.6kg  Tony Carroll Has shown little in three starts, most recently fifth of 6 in a maiden at Chester (66/1) 14 days ago when down markedly in trip in first-time hood. Needs significant improvement.	h	67 Rhys Clutterbuck
2	4	SWISS LIGHTNING (87) (D) 8-1 3 9-6 59.9kg  John & Thady Gosden Much improved from heavy-ground debut when winning a 5-runner maiden back at Newmarket (7f, good) by a head (2/1) 87 days ago, running green but prevailing. Remains lightly raced with potential to build further.		93 Benoit de la Sayette

Should improve for the drop back to 7f and worth another chance.		 100 Jim Crowley

BETTING FORECAST:

11-4 Swiss Lightning, 10-3 Silent Storm, 4-1 Palio Di Siena, 5-1 Tardaff, 15-2 Aspull, 33-1 Signore Enzo, 100-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

SILENT STORM should be better judged on his promising debut and can improve for the drop back to 7f after being poorly placed at Windsor. Tardaff left her debut form well behind when second at Newmarket, making progress late on despite not fully settling. Palio di Siena showed considerable promise at Ffos Las, travelling best and briefly leading. Newmarket winner Swiss Lightning has to be respected also.

2	1	NORTH STAR (IRE) (53)		89

Won novice at Newcastle (7f, AW) in November but failed to improve when third of 6 in handicap at Nottingham (10f, 11/4) 53 days ago on turf debut. This sort of trip should suit based on pedigree.

		2925-8143 3 8-13 56.7kg
		Eve Johnson Houghton
Won a C&D handicap in May, then ran creditably when 4th of 10 here next time. Third of 4 in a 12f handicap at this course (11/2) 17 days ago, finding the longer trip too much. Should be more effective back at this distance.
4	3	SOUL DANCE (17)	h	100
		0-4312 3 8-12 56.2kg
		Andrew Balding
Progressive filly who won impressively at Nottingham (8f). Second of 7 in handicap at Salisbury (8f) (3/1) 17 days ago, staying on well after being forced to delay her move when waiting for a gap over 2f out. Likely to appreciate this step up in trip and looks capable of further improvement.

BETTING FORECAST:

6-4 Soul Dance, 11-4 North Star, 9-2 Queen of Thieves, 5-1 Patsy Snugfit

SOUL DANCE looks capable of further improvement after an impressive handicap debut victory at Nottingham and a creditable second here where she was delayed in her run. Likely to appreciate this step up in distance, she can resume winning ways. Patsy Snugfit returns to the trip of her win here and is feared most, while the well-bred Queen of Thieves drops in class making her handicap debut in first-time cheekpieces.

Won at Newmarket (10f) last November and has run respectably in three starts this term. Fourth of 10 in handicap at Sandown (14f) at odds of 8/1 28 days ago, not settling fully and one-paced late on. Might be better suited by the return to 12f and could improve with a stronger early pace.

CRYSTAL MARINER is well handicapped and shaped as if returning to form at Kempton last time despite being slowly away. He gets the vote back on turf. Loving Look ran respectably at Sandown over 14f and might be better suited by this return to 12f, especially with a stronger pace.
