13 Hear The Drums scored a sensational win in the debut in the Scandinavian Championships for two-year-old horses. Early contender in this company too. 10 Credit Card was improved in the last race and came in second just closely defeated by Thunderboy. Should be even better now. Challenger. 1 Smooth Operator finished fast in the Swedish Championships for two-year-old horses but came in only third. This longer distance could be an advantage. Early choice. 11 Thunderboy comes from victory in the Swedish Championships for two-year-old horses but was clearly defeated by Hear The Drums before that. This distance is a question mark.

9 Fast And Free has not won yet this year but scored a strong fourth spot two starts back and was just closely defeated. This apprentice claims two kilo off. Our pick here. 7 Astron scored a strong win in August together with Nora Hagelund-Holm. Early contender in this company. 1 Swiss Doctor won over these conditions two starts back in Gothenburg. Nice number here. Contender. 14 Rocketman is quite a gifted three-year-old who likes these circumstances. In the mix here.

6 Herewegodandy was improved in the last race on Örevoll one length behind in form Backcountry. Our pick in this open Golden handicap. 2 Lushes Lashes faces better weight conditions now and is quite good for this class. Seems the first choice of the stable and is a possible challenger. 1 More Caviar has not won for a while but has put in many strong performances. Should not be discounted here even if P-A Gråberg has chosen another horse. 4 Archers Ignite comes from a convincing win but has still the same handicap mark. Possible even if this distance might be a bit long.

8 Handyman Carlas did alright in Jockeyklubbens Grand Prix a bit behind the winner. Easier opponents now and Oliver Wilson is an advantage. Our pick. 4 Penfolds is better than shown in the last race and the stallion is still on the way up too. Contender. 7 Leave No Trace was closely beaten by stable companion I Apple in the last race. Turf today should be an advantage. Possible. 13 I Apple comes from victory on the Örevoll dirt but did not impress in the latest attempt on the Bro Park turf

4 Iron Butterfly won Norwegian 1000 Guineas and scored a new convincing victory after that in the Danish Derby. Should have top chance here with a similar effort. Banker. 8 Good Fortune was third in the Danish Derby and after that he won Jockeyklubbens Grand Prix. Shorter distance now and possible challenger. 13 HollywoodBoulevard was second to Good Fortune in the last race and did alright. Interesting here with top jockey Pat Cosgrave. 11 Thunder Mack scored a convincing victory in Swedish 2000 Guineas and showed good form in the last race too. Outsider.

5 Ascot Brass was closely defeated by gifted Queen Rouge in the seasonal debut and has scored two convincing wins after that. Perfect conditions here and she has top chance again. 7 Tille In Action beat Ascot Brass in Breeders Prize Classic last season but has not been as good in four starts this year. Main challenger anyway. 2 New Target has been consistent and good this year and is possible in case of over-pace. Place chance. 11 King Richard has been improved this year and scored a couple of wins on dirt. Is good on turf too. In the mix.
