Summary: NADOR (1) made a striking debut over fences at this track in early September, winning with ease by 14 lengths. He jumped fluently and looks well placed to follow up under James Reveley. MISTIK D'ENGILBERT (2) finished second in that same race and, now 2kg better off, could narrow the gap this time. Summary: KAMYADOR (4) produced a strong second-place finish over 3900m in a handicap hurdle at this track late last month. The slight drop in trip shouldn't pose any problems, and he looks poised to go one better. PRINCESSE DU LYS (15) is well treated at the weights and caught the eye when third in a Class 3 hurdle at Angers in early September—she could be the main threat. HILL OF BAMBOO (5) ran well over fences at Strasbourg in March and can make his presence felt back over hurdles. NEON HAS (17) was a close second at Saint-Malo two weeks ago and must enter calculations, while FARCEUR DE TEILLÉE (11) looks best of the remainder.

Summary: LEOPARD DU BERLAIS (1) looked like a horse to follow when scoring on his debut in a Grade 3 hurdle over 3500m at this track in May. He returns to action, and although he lacks experience, he can get the better of SHANNON MAESTRO (4), who was a good third in a Grade 3 hurdle at Auteuil on September 18th on his seasonal return. Summary: FILE AU POTEAU (2) scored in a competitive hurdle race at this track in mid-September and returns to fences with strong claims. He has placed form over fences here and looks primed for a bold showing. FISTON DE BECON (1) could be the main danger—he's capable of better than he's shown so far this year, having been highly tried and may rise to the occasion. GOLDKIKOU (7) appeals as a reliable each-way option, while KANGO (6) also has claims and should be thereabouts in the closing stages.
