4 Icarus B.R. kept up the pace well from far behind in the last race. Nice number here and the distance is the right one. Our winner in a wide open race. 2 Apollo Creed was ahead of our pick the last time they met and considering the starting position the eight-year-old is one of the hot favorites. 6 Hero Boom Bay got a run under his belt last time and will be improved to this race. 1 Ottens Idol has not convinced lately. Barefoot in front is an exciting change.

4 Kringlers Attila is a quick starter and the close favorite for the lead. Geir Flåten gave up from the lead in the last race, but the five-year-old is still our pick here. 12 Hornnes Sol gave up completely from the lead in the last race. Can do much better than that and should not be overlooked despite this starting position. 1 Lyseng Nova got locked in with energy left in the last race and is in better form than the results show. One of several who can win the race. 9 Kalani comes back after a break but should be considered directly anyway.

RANK

10 Tiger Tale has only missed a podium place once in six starts this year. Owns good capacity for this class and should have a good chance of passing the field during the final lap. 4 Feeling Superb is gifted and if he finds his way back to the form that gave him three victories this year he could be the winner. 7 Kiki Hall gave up from the lead in the last race but if the positions are right she will finish quickly. 11 Juliette F.T. is in great form but needs some racing luck from this position.

RANK

1 Lady Gracia Heldia found the lead from this lane two starts back and should have a good chance to reach that position again - and then he is the horse to beat. 11 Cappellotto is the best horse in this field but has a difficult lane. Benefits from high pace and will then sprint past most of the field. Challenger. 9 Leroy B.R. likes these conditions but is disadvantaged by this lane. Could cause a surprise with a perfect trip. 7 Loveheart C.O. is up and down in his performances. Tricky number but should not be discounted anyway.
