SPEED DES LANDES (4) won on his latest start at Blain in a Class 4 cross-country and can make life difficult for the selection. Summary: NANTIKA (2) won last October on the turf at Niort and had a couple of runs after on the PSF, with a third-placed effort on her penultimate start. She is lightly raced and has more progress to come. SUPER TIE BREAK (1) won at La Teste 11 days ago in a Class 4 handicap and looks like the main danger. GRAND MACHO (5) was a decent third at Saint-Cloud last June, and if emulating that run, he can not be ruled out. FORCEIGHT (6) is also one to consider.

Summary: In a field of newcomers, it may pay to side with MAZARINE (7) who looks the part on her pedigree. She will be well prepared by her astute trainer. MARIOLE (3) is out of a mare who won two races, and this gelding is worth watching in the betting exchanges. MUSIQUE ALLEN (8) has a taking profile; her dam won six races and was placed in a Listed chase. She can be involved as can MARIGNY (4), who could be the first choice of her trainers trio in the lineup.

Summary: SAKURASAKU (4) was below his best last time but posted a promising fifth at CHANTILLY in mid-February and is the first choice in what looks like an open maiden. GERARD TER BORCH (7) makes plenty of appeal on paper and is expected to play a leading role on debut. SAWAF (2) has finished fifth on his last two starts, and with race experience on his side, he can make the frame. TEPITO (1) has shown ability and is one to consider each-way.
